Even after having lived with Jesus and listening to his teachings, the disciples surprisingly still continue to think and behave from a human perspective. James and John seek places of privilege and prestige in Jesus' heavenly kingdom, the other disciples (perhaps wanting the privileges themselves) express their anger and angst against James and John. Meanwhile Jesus invites us to transcend our old ways of thinking and to grow in virtues which are in tune with the Gospel.

Taking advantage of the situation, Jesus imparts important lessons to his disciples on leadership and discipleship. According to the teachings of Jesus, leadership and discipleship involve suffering and service. No disciple can come to "glory" without taking part in the passion and death of Jesus.

The image of Jesus washing the feet of the disciples better represents the image of Christian leadership. Leadership is not for self-gratification. Positions of authority are not a privilege and to consider it as such, is a wrong conception. Jesus is the perfect example of leadership and discipleship, he came not to be served but to serve.

CWF Appeal

The next Charitable Works Fund (CWF) Appeal is scheduled for 4th November. This appeal will focus on the joy, love and faith formation provided by our catechists with the 16,500 students at NSW public schools in our Diocese.

When you make the decision to give to the Charitable Works Fund you are helping your local community. Donations received are distributed between the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD), CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Practitioners, St Lucy's School, St Edmund's College and the Ephpheta Centre. All these charities and agencies minister to our families, friends and neighbours in the Diocese of Broken Bay. For more information on the beneficiaries please visit the Diocese of Broken Bay website <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/give/charitable-works-fund>.

All donations are 100% Tax Deductable.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon.

To you, I call: for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.
If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content.

By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 32:4-5. 18-20. 22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

A reading from the letter to the

Hebrews

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Mark 10:45

Alleluia, alleluia !

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.

Alleluia !

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.
