The readings today give a graphic description of the importance of being focused on the things of God and not allowing words and practices to become a milestone around our necks.

Moses and Jesus both say 'no' to misguided understandings of the truth and urge their followers to open their eyes and hearts. The reality is that God's Spirit moves freely and the Spirit of God is given to all of us. Where do I see this Spirit— in the church and in the world? Perhaps in those who are prophetically leading us towards more awareness and care of creation and our environment? To be open to the possibility that God's spirit may well be speaking to us, despite the way it comes, is the hope of Moses, fulfilled in Jesus and lived in our time.

In the coming week, the Church will commemorate the Memorial of three great saints: Saint Jerome, Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, and Saint Francis of Assisi. These three saints lived at very different times, came from differing circumstances and led very different lives. But they all shared in common, a desire to live according to God's will. Every day, they lived out God's mission, most particularly through prayer. Despite the challenges they all faced in life, they never strayed far from God.

We pray the Holy Spirit will be with them during this next month, guiding them in their discussions and helping them to serve the Church in this unique and special way.

Something to think about ...

Jesus, you desire unity with you and with one another, just as you want integrity for us in our own lives. Give us the wisdom to choose what is beneficial and the freedom to let go of what is not.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us in according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading

Numbers 11:25-29

A reading from the book of Numbers. The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again.

Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look,' he said 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all !'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 18:8, 10, 12-14

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul.

The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.

The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. R.

So in them your servant finds instruction; great reward is in their keeping.

But who can detect all his errors?

From hidden faults acquit me. R.

From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me.

Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. R.

Second Reading

James 5:1-6

A reading from the letter of St James. An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them - listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf John 17:17

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our word, O Lord, is truth: make us holy in the truth.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.

'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward. 'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.
