Philosophers have often said that “ You should bother less about what you ought to do, and think more about what you ought to be, because if you were doing good, then your works would shine forth brightly”

This is not always easy to achieve as is evident from the Gospel text of today. All too often, we might make the mistake of focusing a little too much on the external action and not give enough thought to the inner disposition.

As he called his listeners two thousand years ago, Jesus continues to call us to imitate him in having a pure heart from which the right actions will flow.

This will result in our following the statutes and ordinances of the Lord and practising a religion that is pure and undefiled.

“It is from within, from the heart that evil intentions emerge”

First Holy Communion Rehearsals

There will be a 1st Holy Communion for candidates on Wednesday 5th September at 7pm in St Kevin's for candidates enrolled for a St Kevin's Communion session and on Thursday 6th September at 7pm in St John's church for those candidates enrolled to receive First Communion in St John's Church.

For the past 4 weeks the children in our parish have been preparing, with their families, to receive communion for the first time. I would like to thank the group leaders who have given up their time and energy to lead the preparation lessons during this period. It is an important job and I am very grateful to them for accepting this role. The children will receive communion next week at St Kevin's (9.15am) and at St John's (5pm and 10am) on the two weeks following. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. Thank you. Mary Baldwin, Sacramental Coordinator.

Over this weekend, members of the SVDPS will distribute empty clothing bags after mass, at the front door of the church. Could parishioners with unused clothes at home, please take a bag and return it filled to the church the following weekend, for collection by members of the society.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long. O Lord you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2. 6-8

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

Moses said to the people: 'Now, Israel, take notice of the laws and customs that I teach you today, and observe them, that you may have life and may enter and take possession of the land that the Lord the God of your fathers is giving you. You must add nothing to what I command you, and take nothing from it, but keep the commandments of the Lord your God just as I lay them down for you. Keep them, observe them, and they will demonstrate to the peoples your wisdom and understanding. When they come to know of all these laws they will exclaim, "No other people is as wise and prudent as this great nation." And indeed, what great nation is there that has its gods so near as the Lord our God that has laws and customs to match this whole Law that I put before you today?'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 14:2-5

R. The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain?
He who walks without fault;
he who acts with justice
and speaks the truth from his heart. R.
He who does no wrong to his brother,
who casts no slur on his neighbour,
who holds the godless in disdain,
but honours those who fear the Lord. R.
He who keeps his pledge, come what may;
who takes no interest on a loan
and accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm for ever. R.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18. 21-22. 27

A reading from the letter of St James.

It is all that is good, everything that is perfect, which is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of all light; with him there is no such thing as alteration, no shadow of a change. By his own choice he made us his children by the message of the truth so that we should be a sort of first-fruits of all that he had created.

Accept and submit to the word which has been planted in you and can save your souls. But you must do what the word tells you, and not just listen to it and deceive yourselves.

Pure, unspoilt religion, in the eyes of God our Father is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it, and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: James 1:18

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Father gave us birth by his message of truth,
that we might be as the first fruit of his creation.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8. 14-15. 21-23

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.
The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus, and they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with unclean hands, that is, without washing them. For the Pharisees, and the Jews in general, follow the tradition of the elders and never eat without washing their arms as far as the elbow; and on returning from the market place they never eat without first sprinkling themselves. There are also many other observances which have been handed down to them concerning the washing of cups and pots and bronze dishes. So these Pharisees and scribes asked him, 'Why do your disciples not respect the tradition of the elders but eat their food with unclean hands?'

He answered, 'It was of you hypocrites that Isaiah so rightly prophesied in this passage of scripture:

This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me. The worship they offer me is worthless, the doctrines they teach are only human regulations.

You put aside the commandment of God to cling to human traditions.'

He called the people to him again and said, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can make him unclean; it is the things that come out of a man that make him unclean. For it is from within, from men's hearts, that evil intentions emerge: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these things come from within and make a man unclean.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon.

How great is the goodness, Lord, that you keep for those who fear you.
