Today we recount how the Israelites revolted against Moses and despised God because of their hunger for physical food. They quickly forgot all the great things that God had done for them. God, however, proved to be a great provider by feeding them with manna from heaven.

In the Gospel, Jesus performs the miracle of the multiplication of bread and fish out of necessity. However, the crowd has been taken up only by the material things they could get from Christ. So, rather than first accepting Christ and the word of God he preached, they allowed physical hunger to overshadow their spiritual hunger.

When we pay too much attention to material things, we tend to forget the goodness of God. So, rather than counting our blessings we might end up counting our woes and blaming God for our misfortunes.

Do not work for food that goes bad, but for food that endures for eternal life.

No 8.30am Mass on Thursday 9th August

Anointing of the Sick Mass
The anointing of the Sick Mass for August will take place on Thursday 30th August at 11am in St John's Church.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for August The Treasure of families.

That any far reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity

The Treasure of Families

Feast day of Consecration to God the Father of all Mankind is to be observed after the 9:30 Mass at St John's on Tuesday, 7th August .

We are to end the journey of prior seven days Themes of meditation with scriptural references from the Old and the New Testament as we pray the Holy Octave chaplet with a Theme for the eight day as the final solemn day of the Consecration to Our Father of All Mankind.

God our Father promised that no one will be lost even if he calls God, Father once.

He desires a tangible image/icon under which His children communicate to Him all their joys sorrows, desires, problems etc like we do to our earthly father.

It is still not too late to join in the prayers to prepare oneself; the time has come to 'Worship the Father in spirit and in truth' in view of the coming of the New Jerusalem.

For further information please leave text on 0421 896 848 or a message on 9981 3178 to Ljerka.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon.

O God, come to my assistance;
O Lord, make haste to help me !
You are my rescuer, my help;
O Lord, do not delay.

First Reading: Exodus 16:2-4. 12-15

A reading from the book of Exodus
The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, 'Why did we not die at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our heart's content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day's portion; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not.'

'I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, "Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your heart's content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God."' And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp. When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, 'What is that?' not knowing what it was. 'That' said Moses to them 'is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 77:3-4. 23-25. 54

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

The things we have heard and understood, the things our fathers have told us,

we will tell to the next generation:
the glories of the Lord and his might. R.

He commanded the clouds above and opened the gates of heaven.
He rained down manna for their food,
and gave them bread from heaven. R.

Mere men ate the bread of angels.
He sent them abundance of food.
He brought them to his holy land,
to the mountain which his right hand had won. R.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:17. 20-24

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians
I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus. You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires. Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God's way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!
No one lives on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Alleluia!

Gospel: John 6:24-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered:

'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat.
Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.'

Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'

Jesus answered:

'I tell you solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.'

'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered:

'I am the bread of life.
He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

You have given us O Lord, bread from heaven, endowed with all delights and sweetness in every taste.
