In today's Gospel, the Scribes were very concerned with externals, their positions and their importance. They were the ones to take over the houses of widows. Help us to see beyond our own importance, to what is of true value. The poor widow was in marked contrast to the scribes. She was a model of generosity in giving everything she had, not just what she had over and above. Help us to be inspired by the widow to be generous in our daily lives.

"Praise the Lord, my soul!"

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

The good news is that all the books for the Parish Fundraiser were distributed last weekend, ie taken by willing sellers. Our parishioners are wonderful. A big thankyou to those who kindly took a book of 10 to sell at home or work or to adult working children.

A note to sellers: please be sure to clearly write the buyer's contact details on the butt or stub. Tear off the larger part for the buyer to keep as a record of their number in the draw.

Please return the completed 10 stubs or butts to the person who handed you the book. Alternatively you can leave the completed butts/stubs at the Office with your $200. I hope to provide a regular update going forward. It would be good to wrap this up reasonably quickly so that we can decide on a date for the draw.

Fr Resty will then select the lucky number from the barrel, at a time yet to be decided. So exciting for the winner! If anyone is having difficulty selling all 10, then return the book or partly sold book asap.

We have buyers waiting. If it helps, Gerard will meet you mid-week to collect. Please call M 0415035022 or the Office 99826536 or Monique Davis M 0477004312

Meeting of Lectors, Altar Servers & New Readers

Please join us for a meeting on Thursday 28th November at 6.30pm in St. Kevin's Church for a meeting and training. Please RSVP to the Parish Office. Many thanks.

Sisters of the Immaculata - Discernment Retreat .

*We would like to invite any young women who are interested in discerning religious life and our community to a "Come and See" discernment weekend from Friday 29th November - Sunday 1st December 2024.

Any vocation is first discovered by sitting at the feet of Jesus and listening to Him, so this weekend will be a wonderful opportunity to go deeper in His love and take time to discern God's will for your life.

The weekend will be an opportunity to adore the Lord and learn to listen to God's voice as well as experience the prayer, community, charism and life of the Sisters of the Immaculata.

If you would like to come for the weekend, please contact us at vocations@immaculata.org.au for more information. Please note that there are limited spaces available.

Something to think about ..

We must accept the promise that when we give of the little we have, God will provide more to us in return. God draws us closer, and we are nourished and sustained by his Word and presence. When God asks, let us always respond in the affirmative, placing our trust in him.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading

1 Kings 17:10-16

A reading from the first book of the Kings.

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 12:38-44

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
