To be taught by God is to come to Jesus— and we need to understand that 'come' is here best understood as belief in Jesus—'everyone who believes has eternal life'. That does not mean that we will not pass through physical death. But physical death is understood in the Gospel of John as a transition from physical life into the fullness of eternal life. The eternal life we possess now is only partial, it is not yet complete and can only become complete when Jesus comes again in his glory on the last day, at the end of time. So, take some time now, and sit with those last four lines of the Gospel reading. How are they impacting you? What scandalises you? What can Jesus possibly mean by eating his flesh?

CatholicCare's August Homelessness Week fundraiser – August 10-11

There is no place like home – but for many having a home is not a reality. The causes may be diverse, but the impact is the same – a loss of dignity and a sense of hopelessness. CatholicCare provides a number of services to support people who are homeless or transient, including a women's refuge, transitional accommodation options, young parents homelessness services and street sleeping outreach supports. We also operate Dom's Place in Hornsby and Mary Mac's Place in Woy Woy where we provide meals, a place to shower and wash clothes, and somewhere for people who are homeless or transient to come and connect with supports and community.

A Diocesan-wide fundraiser for CatholicCare's homelessness services will be held on the weekend of 10-11 August. All parishes have received an email containing resources and information about the fundraiser. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Ashleigh Donnelly: Ashleigh.Donnelly@catholiccaredbb.org.au

Thank you in advance for supporting this important Diocesan initiative.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ...

Many people are held bound by the mundane. Jesus revealed a new way beyond the ordinary and everyday where the action of God was more evident. We pray for openness to the deeper gifts and the surprising ways in which God is present in our lives and world.

A Message from Fr Jim

Dear St John's Narrabeena, this year I am celebrating my 25th anniversary as a priest. I will be walking the Camino de Santiago in Spain, using each day of walking to remember and give thanks for each year of priesthood. From Sept 3-6 I will be remembering and giving God thanks for my time in Narrabeena Parish from 2003-2007. I remain so grateful for the incredible community of faith which St John's was for me and the opportunity to learn to lead as parish priest. I'll be putting my reflections on this blog <https://frjimsreflections.blogspot.com/> and I will be praying for you and your parish in these days. I am sorry that I will miss the 50th anniversary of St John's Narrabeena, but I will be with you in spirit. – Fr Jim McKeon

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

First Reading

1 Kings 19:4-8

A reading from the first book of the Kings.

Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord,' he said 'I have had enough. Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-9

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.

The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

Glorify the Lord with me.

Together let us praise his name.

I sought the Lord and he answered
me; from all my terrors he set me
free. R.

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.

This poor man called; the Lord heard him

and rescued him from all his distress. R.

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in
him. R

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:30 - 5:2

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians.

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Try, then, to imitate God, as children
of his that he loves, and follow Christ
by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven,
says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:41-51

A reading from the holy Gospel
according to John.

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down

from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other. 'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me,
and I will raise him up at the last day.
It is written in the prophets:

They will all be taught by God,
and to hear the teaching of the Father,
and learn from it, is to come to me.

Not that anybody has seen the Father,
except the one who comes from God:
he has seen the Father.

I tell you most solemnly,
everybody who believes has eternal life.

I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead;
but this is the bread that comes down
from heaven,

so that a man may eat it and not die.

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live
for ever;

and the bread that I shall give
is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.
