Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

We read in Acts and in Mark's Gospel, that Jesus had shown himself to the apostles after his Passion. What conversation do you need to have with Jesus about what's happening in your life and in our world? Sit with the apostles and Jesus, and hear Jesus say to you, 'Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation'. We are part of creation. How are you being called to make a difference in the world? In Laudato Si we are invited to pray: All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

'God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.'

Pastoral Discernment Northern Beaches Project.

The Community Engagement Phase of the Pastoral Discernment Northern Beaches project has begun!

Where are we now?

Community groups are currently planning their local Community Consultation Forum, inviting all community members to listen and dialogue together. Speak with your community leader (parish priest, school principal, or CatholicCare manager) to learn of ways that you can get involved and participate in this very exciting initiative - as we journey forward together.

To find out more about the project please visit <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/pdnb>

For questions, email Patti at PDNB@bbcatholic.org.au

Please email the office on warringahparish@bbcatholic.org.au for more information on Baptisms and to book a place at the next Baptism Workshop.

St Kevin's Working Bee. Many thanks to all who assisted at the Working Bee last weekend. We appreciate all your hard work and help. Thanks again.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ..

Jesus said farewell to the Apostles and was welcomed home by the Father. Jesus had completed his part of the mission and handed it over to the Apostles to carry forward. As their modern day successors, may we bring the good news and healing wherever we go.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens? This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 1:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles. In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.' Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.' As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 46:2-3, 6-9

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. R.

God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.

God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:1-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians. I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, over all, through all and within all. Each one of us, however, has been given his own share of grace, given as Christ allotted it. It was said that he would: When he ascended to the height, he captured prisoners, he gave gifts to men. When it says, 'he ascended', what can it mean if not that he descended right down to the lower regions of the earth? The one who rose higher than all the heavens to fill all things is none other than the one who descended. And to some, his gift was that they should be apostles; to some, prophets; to some, evangelists; to some, pastors and teachers; so that the saints together make a unity in the work of service, building up the body of Christ. In this way we are all to come to unity in our faith and in our knowledge of the Son of God, until we become the perfect Man, fully mature with the fullness of Christ himself.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 28:19, 20

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia !

Gospel

Mark 16:15-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus showed himself to the Eleven, and said to them, 'Go out to the whole world, proclaim the Good News to all creation. He who believes and is baptised will be saved; he who does not believe will be condemned. These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover.' And so the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven: there at the right hand of God he took his place, while they, going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that accompanied it.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Behold I am with you always, even to the end of the age, alleluia.
