Here is a powerful motivating force for life, and both the first reading and the Gospel offer hope.
Persecution of Christians continues, and we know that life can be tough: illness, violence, loneliness, etc.

Wherein lives hope for us?

Hope reminds us that by being attentive to the signs of the times, we will recognise that 'he is near' in the changing seasons, in the presence of those we love and in the wonder of all of creation.

"Keep me safe, O God; you are hope"

FEAST: St. Elizabeth of Hungary – 17th November

We have saints in the Church from all walks of life, even some who were of royal stock. St. Elizabeth of Hungary was the daughter of the King, who married nobility and had three children. She was inspired by the life and example of St. Francis of Assisi and decided to become a lay member of the Franciscan Order, dedicating her life to the care of the poor and sick in a hospice which she founded until her death. She is one of the patron saints of the Secular Franciscan Order.

Sacramental Formation Process Review.

Bishop Anthony has asked that a review of our current Sacramental formation process, or 'Sacramental Program,' take place with a vision of creating a new and contemporary set of resources for the next generation of young Catholics as they come to know Jesus in the Sacraments. If you have been involved with formation in the current program, or are a parent whose child has undertaken the formation, we would really appreciate feedback on your experience and the resources used. What you share with us in this survey will be invaluable to the success of the project, and be kept confidential between those involved. There are two versions, for adults and also for children who would like to participate.

Red Wednesday Mass – 24 November

Red Wednesday is an annual event to remember and pray for all who are persecuted and oppressed for their Christian faith. Cathedrals, churches and public buildings around the world will light up in red to show solidarity with our brothers and sisters in Christ. Red Wednesday is an initiative of Aid to the Church in Need, a Catholic charity dedicated to the support of suffering and persecuted Christians.

This year, the Diocese of Broken Bay will mark this occasion with a Red Wednesday Mass on 24 November at Our Lady of Dolours Church, Chatswood, at 7:30pm. Fr David Ranson will preside. Registration for the Mass is essential, as numbers are limited due to the current COVID restrictions. Please register at www.bbcatholic.org.au/redwednesday

The Mass will also be live streamed to allow all to participate and join in prayer for Christians persecuted around the world. A link to the live stream will be located at www.bbcatholic.org.au/redwednesday

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captive from every place

First Reading

Daniel 12:1-3

A reading from the prophet Daniel 'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 15:5, 8-11

R. Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;

it is you yourself who are my prize.

I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;

even my body shall rest in safety.

For you will not leave my soul among the dead,

nor let your beloved know decay. R.

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

A reading from the letter of to the Hebrews

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 21:36

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 13:24-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
