Prayers to the Immaculate Heart

1st Saturday of the month after 9.30am Mass.
Rosary, Litany & Consecration.

At every Eucharist we accept and commit to a Christlike relationship with all those who join us at the altar, and with all those we encounter in life.

Our concern is different than the crowds who ask:

“How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

Our concern is how to give what we have and who we are to those who hunger and thirst for God.

Our faith assures us that Jesus is the living bread for us; it is that same faith that sends us from Eucharist to be living loaves of love, bearers of justice and signs of compassion.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Jesus continually calls us to himself and makes himself available to us. He is everywhere but is fully present and tangible in the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharist. He has made himself available to us in the simplest, humblest food accessible by all, bread. We go to him, adore him and receive him, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. In receiving the Eucharist, Jesus lives in us and we become one with him, taking all that he offers us, peace, hope and love into the world so that others who do not yet know him, encounter him and his promises through us.

PRAYER:

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. Amen

FEAST: 19 June - Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been officially celebrated since the 18th century, however devotion to the Sacred Heart is seen as far back as the 11th century. The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart as well as each first Friday of the month. Jesus made 12 promises, through personal revelation St Margaret Mary Alacoque, to those who honour the Sacred Heart. The Heart of the Son is close to the heart of his mother who's Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary is celebrated on 20 June. <https://aleteia.org/2018/06/08/a-visu>

KEEP calm
& PRAY

Almighty and all-merciful God, lover of the human race, healer of all our wounds, in whom there is no shadow of death, save us in this time of crisis; grant wisdom and courage to our leaders; watch over all medical people as they tend the sick and work for a cure; stir in us a sense of solidarity beyond all isolation; if our doors are closed, let our hearts be open. By the power of your love destroy the virus of fear, that hope may never die and the light of Easter, the triumph of life, may shine upon us and the whole world. Through Jesus Christ, the Lord risen from the dead, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Holy Mary, health of the sick, pray for us.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart - whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

'Do not then forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 147:12-15, 19-20

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem! Zion, praise your God! He has strengthened the bars of your gates, he has blessed the children within you. R.

He established peace on your borders, he feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command. R.

He makes his word known to Jacob, to Israel his laws and decrees.

He has not dealt thus with other nations; he has not taught them his decrees. R.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord: whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 6:51-58

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to the Jews:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.' Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied: 'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day.

For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him.

As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me. This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.
