Today's Gospel contains the great parable of the mustard seed. Jesus used everyday realities and familiar occurrences to communicate his teaching to the people. These parables help us discern something about the kingdom of God and our own faith. In God we live and move and have our being, but God is a mystery and his kingdom, though present, has not yet come into its fullness. Today, the Kingdom of God is present in the Church. The mission of proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom given to the Apostles, is now given to us. But just as seeds need time to come to fruition, so does the Kingdom of God. That is why in the Lord's Prayer, we pray, "thy kingdom come." We know that it will come in its fullness at the end of time. All we need is faith.

'Lord it is good to give thanks to you'.

Something to think about ..

Small things and deeds in life can have much significance. What is little can lead to something greater.
Lord, help us to make the small changes that bring freedom and more availability to others.

Consultation Questions

Communities across the Northern Beaches are invited to respond to the below questions through the Conversation in the Spirit methodology, listening and dialoguing together, at the service of shaping a pastoral discernment submission for Bishop Anthony's consideration.

- 1) The religious composition of the Northern Beaches community shows a high number of people identifying with no religion, many of whom may have once identified as Catholic. What relationships do we have with the people in this group? What opportunities for mission exist in the wider community that this group can be involved in?
- 2) The data highlights that there has been an increase in the number of Catholic Families on the Northern Beaches between the years 2016 and 2021. What ministries may need to be strengthened or developed to meet the spiritual and pastoral needs of these families?
- 3) The largest number of Catholics, by age, on the Northern Beaches are children aged 10-19. Also, the data reports that a large proportion of Catholic students attend state schools. What may need to be considered in providing avenues for mission for the youth and young people on the Northern Beaches?
- 4) An increasing number of people living in the Northern Beaches experience a number of social difficulties: domestic and family violence, mental health and wellbeing concerns, and difficulties due to the effects of the current housing affordability crisis. What may need to be considered to support and resource the specific social and disadvantaged needs of people living on the Northern Beaches? What areas for outreach may need to be thought through and considered?
- 5) How does the current grouping of Catholic Communities on the Northern Beaches facilitate or limit; mission, ministry, worship, liturgy, and catechesis? What may need to be considered or reviewed to enhance and strengthen Catholic Communities on the Northern Beaches?

Secondary School age students
Inviting secondary school-age students (at schools or in parish Youth groups) to participate by responding to the below-guiding questions.

- Does Christian faith have any relevance for me personally or for the communities of the Northern Beaches? If not, why not?
- What would the Church have to do to have any impact on people living on the Northern Beaches?
- What are the biggest issues facing young people on the Northern Beaches today?
- What do I like most about living on the Northern Beaches? What do I dislike?

Primary School age students
Inviting Year 5 and Year 6 students to participate by responding to the below guiding questions.

- What does the Church mean for me?
- What would help me have a greater sense of belonging to the Church for me?
- What would I change about the Church?
- What could the Church do better on the Northern Beaches?

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!

First Reading

Ezekiel 17:22-24

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel. The Lord says this:

'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain.

I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel.

It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar.

Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches.

And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 91:2-3, 13-16

R. Lord it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight - we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 4:26-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus said to the crowd, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.' He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.' Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

There is one thing I ask of the Lord, only this do I seek; to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.
