Today's Gospel elaborates further on the teaching that Jesus began in our liturgy last week. We hear the concluding verse of last week's Gospel repeated in today's reading: Jesus himself is the bread sent by God; Jesus' flesh is the bread that is given for the life of the world. Jesus teaches with even greater emphasis that salvation comes to those who eat his Body and Blood. Many today continue to struggle to accept these words. But they are important words because they reveal our intimate connection with Jesus. This is the mystery that is at the heart of our eucharistic theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus' Body and Blood are made truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's body for the life of the world.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ..

The Jews did not understand what Jesus was saying and disputed among themselves what this bread could mean. May we have faith and clarity that brings us beyond logical and practical to what the Lord is offering to us.

Pastoral Discernment - Northern Beaches Update

Recently, the Northern Beaches community gathered to participate in a Pastoral Discernment Conversation Forum. The gathering provided an opportunity for all members of the community to hear the themes that have emerged through the local listening and dialogue consultation sessions in each of our Diocesan communities across the Northern Beaches, as well as providing the opportunity for further dialogue, together.

We extend our heartfelt thanks and deep appreciation to everyone who has participated in shaping our collective path forward.

A Final Report is currently being prepared for Bishop Anthony.

Choral Workshop Saturday August 24 1:00pm – 6:30pm

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield; and look on the face of your anointed one; a day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

First Reading

Proverbs 9:1-6

A reading from the book of Proverbs. Wisdom has built herself a house, she has erected her seven pillars, she has slaughtered her beasts, prepared her wine, she has laid her table.

She has despatched her maidservants and proclaimed from the city's heights: 'Who is ignorant? Let him step this way.'

To the fool she says, 'Come and eat my bread, drink the wine I have prepared! Leave your folly and you will live, walk in the ways of perception.'

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-3, 10-15

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

Revere the Lord, you his saints. They lack nothing, those who revere him. Strong lions suffer want and go hungry but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing. R.

Come, children, and hear me that I may teach you the fear of the Lord. Who is he who longs for life and many days, to enjoy his prosperity? R.

Then keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Turn aside from evil and do good; seek and strive after peace. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 5:15-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians.

Be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people. This may be a wicked age, but your lives should redeem it. And do not be thoughtless but recognise what is the will of the Lord. Do not drug yourselves with wine, this is simply dissipation; be filled with the Spirit. Sing the words and tunes of the psalms and hymns when you are together, and go on singing and chanting to the Lord in your hearts, so that always and everywhere you are giving thanks to God who is our Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:56

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me and I in them, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:51-58

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.' Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.'

Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day.

For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him.

As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

With the Lord there is mercy; in him is plentiful redemption.
