In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honour when Jesus enters into his glory. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus says that the honour they seek is not his to give and explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community.

Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles. Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority.

On whose example do we model our leadership?

'Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you'.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ..

All the Apostles struggled with following Jesus, as their own issues remained prominent. Jesus sought to bring them beyond self-interest to be people for others. Lord may we imitate you, who came to serve and who offered your life for us.

Volunteers Roster : St Kevin's

A new volunteers roster has been created for St Kevin's and has been put up at the back of the church. Please can volunteers check their details and let the Parish Office know if there are any changes or alterations. Thank you to all our volunteers who give up their valuable time to assist with the running and maintenance of the parish.

Acts of the Apostles

As part of the Year of Prayer 2024, Bishop David Walker will present a 4 part series on the Acts of the Apostles. St Agatha's Catholic Church 20 Boundary Road, Pennant Hills Tuesdays, 10:30am – 12 noon 22nd & 29th October

Mass will be celebrated at 9:30am each day, followed by morning tea. Sessions will begin at 10:30am.

Not to be missed! Everyone is welcome. Attend one or all sessions.

This is a wonderful opportunity to deepen your understanding of the Acts of the Apostles. The programme will offer an insight into the development of the earliest years of the Church up to the deaths of Saints Peter and Paul around 65 AD. Each session will conclude with a guided lectio divina of a passage from Acts.

Registrations essential. Please contact St Agatha's Parish Office on (02) 9484 1427 or email stagathas@bbcatholic.org.au

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

To you, I call ; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading

Isaiah 53:10-11

A reading from the prophet Isaiah. The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over, he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:4-5, 18-20, 22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:14-16

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 10:45

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:35-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.
