It seems to be part of human nature to fear the unknown. As a child, it might have been the darkness; as an adult it may be any unfamiliar event or task that is in our future. Jesus addresses the Twelve as a parent might console a child. He encourages his followers to put their trust in his word and in his friendship for them. He assures them that the Father's love is as tender as that for a sparrow, and as deliberate as knowing the number of hairs on their heads. Strange comparisons, but we are that precious in the sight of God.

Family Prayer Time

Something to Think About

What makes you feel scared? Jesus tells us that we don't need to be afraid because God is always watching over us. God cares for us through the people who love us the most and who help us to overcome our fears and anxieties. You might like to take turns composing "Don't be afraid to..." statements.

Family Discussion

As a family, talk about something you know about each other that maybe no one else knows. Jesus tells us that God knows and loves us even more than anyone in our family. How does that make you feel? Chat about who you talk to if you are worried about doing something new. Remember that we can talk to God (pray) if we feel frightened or alone.

Reflection

Welcome to the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time In times of uncertainty, when things are unclear, and we feel that things are out of our control Jesus implores us to turn to him and not be afraid. We are invited to surrender all fear and anxiety to him; over and over again he reminds us, 'be not afraid'. He walks with us always, and in times of darkness and fear, he carries us. Jesus, I trust in You !

KEEP calm
& PRAY

Almighty and all-merciful God, lover of the human race, healer of all our wounds, in whom there is no shadow of death, save us in this time of crisis; grant wisdom and courage to our leaders; watch over all medical people as they tend the sick and work for a cure; stir in us a sense of solidarity beyond all isolation; if our doors are closed, let our hearts be open. By the power of your love destroy the virus of fear, that hope may never die and the light of Easter, the triumph of life, may shine upon us and the whole world. Through Jesus Christ, the Lord risen from the dead, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Holy Mary, health of the sick, pray for us.

St Joseph, guardian of us all, pray for us.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord is the strength of his people, a safe refuge for the one he has anointed. Save your people, Lord and bless your heritage, and govern them for ever.

First Reading

Jeremiah 20:10-13

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah
Jeremiah said:

I hear so many disparaging me,
"Terror from every side!"

Denounce him! Let us denounce him!
All those who used to be my friends
watched for my downfall,
'Perhaps he will be seduced into error.
Then we will master him and take our revenge!'

But the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero;
my opponents will stumble, mastered,
confounded by their failure;
everlasting, unforgettable disgrace will be theirs.

But you, Lord of Hosts, you who probe with justice, who scrutinise the loins and heart, let me see the vengeance you will take on them, for I have committed my cause to you.

Sing to the Lord,
praise the Lord,
for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 68:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

It is for you that I suffer taunts,
that shame covers my face,
that I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother's sons.

I burn with zeal for your house and taunts against you fall on me. R.

This is my prayer to you,
my prayer for your favour.
In your great love, answer me, O God,
with your help that never fails:
Lord, answer, for your love is kind;
in your compassion, turn towards
me. R.

The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive;
for the Lord listens to the needs and does not spurn servants in their chains.

Let the heavens and the earth give him praise, the sea and all its living creatures. R.

Second Reading

Romans 5:12-15

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of 'law-breaking', yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come, but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man's fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 15:26, 27

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of Truth will bear witness to me, says the Lord,
and you also will be my witnesses.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 10:26-33

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the house-tops.

'Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell. Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing. Why, every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows.

'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven. But the one who disowns me in the presence of men, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The eyes of all look to you, Lord, and you give them their food in due season.
