On this first Sunday of Lent we are invited to journey into the wilderness with Jesus, a place of encounter and solitude. It was the Spirit who 'drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days....' In the wilderness Jesus prayed, fasted and was tempted by Satan. This difficult experience prepared him and strengthened him for his ministry. The forty days of Lent are also a time when we can be strengthened for the work that God has prepared for us. Are we aware of the ways that God desires to use our lives to reach out to others? Pope Francis invites us to 'take advantage of Lent as the privileged time to purify ourselves in order to experience the consoling presence of God in our lives'. Lord, help us to speak moments of being alone with you.
Teach us, Lord, the value of silence and solitude in our life. Help us to seek you in this time.

"Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant"

Children who have received the sacraments of Confirmation and Reconciliation are able to prepare for the sacrament of First Eucharist this year. The preparation has already begun and will continue through the month of March. The sacrament will be received on Saturday 27th March (St Kevin's) at 12noon or Sunday 21st & 28th March (St John's) at 12 noon. Please refer to the parish website for any changes due to COVID 19.

If you have any questions please email Mary on baldwin.mary.50@gmail.com

Project Compassion 2021

Project Compassion boxes are available for collection at the back of both churches. Thank you for your generosity to this year's appeal.

Program 2021.

The Lenten Program is based on Bishop Anthony Randazzo's Pastoral Letter from Advent last year, Jesus Christ: our beginning and end, where he outlines his six key priorities for the Diocese of Broken Bay. Bishop Anthony encourages everyone in the Diocese to take up the Lenten Program.

It is available online at bbcatholic.org.au/lentenprogram

1st Sunday of Lent Prayer

Lord, come with me into my wilderness.
Speak to my preoccupied heart.
Reveal to me where addiction to power, possession and gratification choke my path. Only when I am free from these can I be good news to others. Only then do I become part of the solution to the world's problems.

Digital Liturgy Resources

Laudate (App) This free App has a large number of resources at hand, including the day's Readings; the Liturgy of the Hours; the Rosary, Stations of the Cross, Prayers, Catholic documents including the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and even links to many Catholic media sites. Download for Apple and Android.

Pray As You Go Start the day with a reflection on the day's Reading, with music, Scripture reading, and guided reflection. A simple way to connect with the Church's liturgy and to bring God into your day. Approximately 15 minutes. <https://pray-as-you-go.org/> or download App on Apple or Android.

Thank you from St Vincent de Paul for the Christmas Appeal at St John's Narraweena.

During the pandemic lockdown in which church attendance was severely reduced it was amazing to receive donations of $5463.95 and 65 hampers for the Christmas Appeal. Thank you for your generosity. May God bless you all. John Colby , President Narraweena Conference.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

When he calls on me, I will answer him; I will deliver him and give him glory, I will grant him length of days.

First Reading Genesis 9:8-15

A reading from the book of Genesis God spoke to Noah and his sons, 'See, I establish my Covenant with you, and with your descendants after you; also with every living creature to be found with you, birds, cattle and every wild beast with you: everything that came out of the ark, everything that lives on the earth. I establish my Covenant with you: nothing of flesh shall be swept away again by the waters of the flood. There shall be no flood to destroy the earth again.' God said, 'Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all generations: I set my bow in the clouds and it shall be a sign of the Covenant between me and the earth. When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the Covenant between myself and you and every living creature of every kind. And so the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all things of flesh.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 24:4-9

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: for you are God my saviour. R.

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.

In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. R.

The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. R.

Second Reading

1 Peter 3:18-22

A reading from the first letter of St Peter
Christ himself, innocent though he was, died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life, and, in the spirit, he went to preach to the spirits in prison. Now it was long ago, when Noah was still building that ark which saved only a small group of eight people 'by water', and when God was still waiting patiently, that these spirits refused to believe. That water is a type of the baptism which saves you now, and which is not the washing off of physical dirt but a pledge made to God from a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has entered heaven and is at God's right hand, now that he has made the angels and Dominations and Powers his subjects

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 4:4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ,
king of endless glory!
No one lives on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

Mark 1:12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days, and was tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels looked after him.

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.
