The last Sunday of the Church's Year, celebrates the universal kingship of Christ with encouraging and hope-filled readings! The psalm affirms our king's trustworthiness is forever. The second reading assures us that Jesus Christ loves us and calls us to service. Before reading the Gospel, pause a moment to imagine Jesus in the harrowing hours before he faced Pilate: being arrested, knowing he'd been betrayed by his companions; being struck, bound and dragged before the ruling authority because the Jewish leaders feared how he stood with and for the people. We are blessed to be 'subjects' of the king who does not choose power for the sake of 'power over' and does not seek possessions of fame. Jesus desires only to empower the hearts of those he loves with truth ( 'I am the truth', John 14:6) while asking that we bear witness to the truth and listen to his voice. In doing this, we live enabled by one king who is Love.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

FEAST: Christ the King – 21st November Known officially as 'The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe,' this feast was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925.

The Pope asserted that the most effective defence against the destructive forces of the age is the recognition of the kingship of Christ. At our baptism, each of us has been anointed as priest, prophet, and king – so on this solemnity, we reflect on the kingship of Christ, and how we in our own lives are called to live as servant leaders, reflecting the Glory of God.

Prayer to Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini

O Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini, with the heart of a bishop
and the zeal of an apostle
you gave yourself completely to all.

You listened to the cries of migrants,
spoke in their name, defended their rights.

You found sustenance in the Eucharist
solace in the cross of Jesus, comfort in Mary, Mother of the Church.

Through your intercession
may God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit grant peace to all humanity,
protect those who cross
seas and borders sustained by hope,
bless us and our loved ones
and grant us the grace
that we entrust to your fatherly love. Amen

Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory for the Canonization of Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini.

Pope Francis encourages Vatican journalists to always set out in search of the truth

Pope Francis' visit to Palazzo Pio- the building which houses Vatican Radio, the Holy See's Radio station; and L'Osservatore Romano, the daily newspaper of the Vatican City State, comes as Vatican Radio and L'Osservatore Romano mark their 90th and 160th anniversaries respectively, this year. This is Pope Francis' first-ever visit to the Radio.

Both Vatican Radio and L'Osservatore Romano are part of the Dicastery for Communication of the Holy See.

Pope Francis then proceeded to the Chapel where he spent a few moments in prayer...

"Lord, teach us to come out of ourselves, and to set out in search of the truth. Teach us to go and see, teach us to listen, not to cultivate prejudices, not to draw hasty conclusions..." the Pope prayed.

He even set aside some time to go "live-to-air" on "Radio Vaticana Italia" chatting briefly with some journalists about reaching out to as many listeners and readers as possible.

Pope Francis then proceeded to Palazzo Pio's "Sala Marconi" where he briefly addressed a group of Vatican journalists, urging them to work together more efficiently and to avoid functionalism.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

First Reading

Daniel 7:13-14

A reading from the prophet Daniel
I gazed into the visions of the night.
And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man.
He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence.
On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants.
His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire be destroyed.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 92:1-2, 5

R. The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
the Lord has robed himself with might, he has girded himself with power. R.
The world you made firm, not to be moved;
your throne has stood firm from of old.
From all eternity, O Lord, you are. R.
Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house,
O Lord, until the end of time. R.

Second Reading

Revelation 1:5-8

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 18:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lamb who is at the centre of the throne will lead them to the springs of the waters of life.
