Matthew's account of the Last Judgement never fails to cause us to seriously examine our behaviour as disciples of Jesus. The words of Jesus "as often as you did this, or did not do this, to one of the least ones, you did it to me", cut through all our excuses and any spiritual smugness we might have. The needs of our brothers and sisters are as prevalent today as in the time of Jesus. Each of us can recall examples of when we responded, and when we did not reach out. This reading could well be our daily examination of conscience.

there is nothing I shall want.

CHRISTMAS APPEAL SVDP: Warringah Parish Our Christmas Appeal this year will start on Saturday 28th November at St Johns and St Kevin's masses. Donation envelopes will be available and receipts will be issued for taxation deductions as requested

A difficult Year

We have all had a difficult time this year and the Volunteers within Vinnies thank all of our donors who have assisted those affected by the bushfires, the floods, the drought, and the Covid 19 Crisis.

Covid 19 Crisis

Because of the virus restrictions this year, Dee Why St Kevin's will be collecting financial donations from parishioners to distribute (as "food vouchers" instead of hampers to poorer members of the community. Narraweena St Johns SVDP will be distributing hampers as well as food vouchers. Further details will be outlined after mass

Advent.

Advent is the season that prepares us for the coming joy of Christmas. Let us hope that this joy can be shared with those we assist. God Bless. John COLBY at NARRAWEENA , BILL EYRE, DEE WHY.

PARISH FUNDRAISER - "How would you like $1,000 for Christmas?"

Parish revenue is down however expenses are largely fixed.

Therefore we are holding a Christmas fundraiser which we hope will be fun.

There will be a Lucky Dip starting now.

For $20 a ticket, you have one chance in 200 of winning $1,000.

Simply buy a number then hope your number is drawn out at the end. Feeling Lucky?

Once all 200 are sold then Fr Rei will select the winning number out of a hat. Hopefully that matches the number alongside your name on the Yellow Board.

To preserve these excellent odds, sales will stop at 200 tickets. In order to keep the winning prize high, there is no second or third prize. Winner takes all!

Please see the ticket sellers who will record your contact details and show that number as being sold on the big piece of yellow cardboard at the back of the church.

The identical Lucky Dip is being sold in each parish centre. There will be 200 tickets sold at St Kevin's for $20 each - and 200 tickets at $20 each in Narraweena. You, family or friends are welcome to "invest" in both lucky dips if you wish. Good Luck

If any questions feel free to call PPC members: Jenny Donoghue (0410570398), Clive Pereira (0412869513) or Gerard Haddrick (0415035022)

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

First Reading Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel
The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest - it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them. As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 22:1-3, 5-6

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. R.

Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. R.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in the proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Mark 11:9,10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David! Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 25:31-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world.

For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you gave me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord sits as King for ever. The Lord will bless his people with peace.
