In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus again predict his passion, death, and Resurrection to his disciples. The setting here is important. Jesus and his disciples are preparing to journey through Galilee, a Jewish territory in which Jesus has already encountered problems with the Pharisees. Having arrived at Capernaum, Jesus and his disciples enter a house. Jesus then calls forward a child and teaches the Twelve that to receive a child in Jesus' name is to receive both Jesus and the One who sent him. In this action, Jesus is teaching his disciples and us that when we serve the least ones among us, we serve Jesus himself. Who are the people without power or status in our society that Jesus is calling us to serve? Do we do so willingly? Jesus teaches that God's judgment of us will be based on this criterion alone.

In just a few weeks' time, members of the XVI General Ordinary Assembly of the Synod of Bishops will gather to begin the second session. The Second Assembly will take place from 2 to 27 October 2024. A spiritual retreat for members will be held prior from 30 September to 1 October. Everyone, all baptised people, regardless of whether they will be in Rome, are asked to participate in October's assembly of the Synod of Bishops with their prayers. The Synod is first and foremost an event of prayer and listening that does not solely involve the members of the synodal assembly, but every baptised person, every particular Church.

Bishop Anthony and Kelly Paget are once again preparing to travel to Rome for this significant gathering, and we invite you to pray for both Bishop Anthony and Kelly; in both the lead up to their departure and their time whilst in Rome participating in the second session of the Synod.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ..

The disciples were discussing who was the greatest among them. Lord, give us childlike hearts that can truly welcome you and help us to be welcoming of others, especially those who are less fortunate than ourselves.

Truly, I say to you,
unless you turn and
become like children,
you will never enter
the kingdom of heaven.

Did you know that CatholicCare has a free financial counselling service?

When Jennifer fell pregnant as a young, single woman, she knew that caring for this baby would fall solely on her. Along with the myriad of emotions that came with a positive pregnancy test, she was anxious about her financial future. Jennifer was supported by CatholicCare's financial counselling team, which ultimately reduced her stress and gave her the breathing space to enjoy her newborn son. To find out more about CatholicCare's financial counselling services call us today on 1800 324 924 or email info@catholiccaredbb.org.au

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.

First Reading

Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

A reading from the book of Wisdom. The godless say to themselves, 'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man, since he annoys us and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our breaches of the law and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing. Let us see if what he says is true, let us observe what kind of end he himself will have. If the virtuous man is God's son, God will take his part and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies. Let us test him with cruelty and with torture, and thus explore this gentleness of his and put his endurance to the proof. Let us condemn him to a shameful death since he will be looked after - we have his word for it.'

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 53:3-6, 8

R. The Lord upholds my life.

O God, save me by your name;
by your power, uphold my cause.
O God, hear my prayer;
listen to the words of my mouth. R.

For proud men have risen against me,
ruthless men seek my life.
They have no regard for God. R.

But I have God for my help.
The Lord upholds my life.
I will sacrifice to you with willing heart and praise your name for it is good. R

Second Reading

James 3:16 - 4:3

A reading from the letter of St James. Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done; whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace, and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness.

Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves? You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it; when you do pray and don't get it, it is because you have not prayed properly, you have prayed for something to indulge your own desires.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf 2 Thessalonians 2:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

God has called us with the gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 9:30-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him. They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept; may my ways be firm in keeping your statutes.
