'What do you want me to do for you? What would I reply if Jesus asked me this question right now?

The blind man not only knew what he wanted Jesus to do for him, he had no doubt that he would get what he wanted!

This is a story about hope born of deep faith.
Bartimaeus had such hope-a deep certainty that this 'Son of David' he had heard so much about would have pity on him and restore his sight. He was so certain of a cure that he threw his cloak off as he went to Jesus. Bartimaeus had hoped to see for so long and how he knew his time had come. Jesus, increase my faith that I will be able to see what you do for me. May I be able to say with the psalmist:
'The Lord has done great things for me; I am filled with joy'.

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Extract of letter from Bishop Anthony

It is with a great sense of encouragement that New South Wales has achieved the target of 80% vaccination. This represents a remarkable response by the community to ensure the safety of everyone and to bring us out of the severe restrictions we have experienced since the end of June.

Places of Public Worship are exempt from the requirement of vaccination. Given that both vaccinated and unvaccinated may be present at Masses it will be important for us to convey to our people that they need to discern what may be in the best interests of their safety and that of their families. I recognize that for a number of our people now will not be the time to return to the public celebration of Masses in our churches. Therefore, I continue to suspend the Sunday Obligation until 1 December in order to assure our people of our respect for the personal choices they may need to make during this initial period of emergence from lockdown.

In resuming Masses, it will be important for us to follow all those COVID safety requirements around density of gatherings, QR registration, the wearing of masks and refraining from congregational singing. The government regulations do allow for a small choir of up to 10 people, and therefore I encourage you to call upon musicians and singers in that capacity. We continue to celebrate Mass in the way that we have since the commencement of the pandemic, mindful of the many ways by which we ensure everyone's safety.

I wish you every blessing as you reach out and regather your parish communities in person, and I pray that this time will be one of great grace for you and for our people as the public celebration of the Eucharist and the Sacraments is possible once again.

FEAST: Pope St John Paul II (22 October) Born in Krakow, Pope St John Paul II lived through tremendous suffering: experiencing the loss of all of his immediate family by the time he was 20, WWII, Communism and ill-health. Despite this, he showed the world how to keep hope amidst suffering and the true meaning of love through a life of service. He is also the most travelled Pope in history

Welcome to the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As our Sunday Gospel readings move through the Gospel of Mark each week, Jesus and his disciples move closer to their destination, Jerusalem. In today's reading, they're not too far off, in Jericho. There they are interrupted by Bartimaeus, a blind man, yelling for Jesus' attention. Jesus stops, and calls for him. The crowd has a role here, to bring him to Jesus. After previously trying to silence him, they now encourage him. Once his physical sight has been restored, we see that Bartimaeus has gained much more – a renewed spiritual sight as shown by his following of Jesus at the end of the passage. In our own lives, are we persistent in searching out Jesus? Do we actively encourage others to come to Jesus?

PRAYER: Lord Jesus, you have delivered us through difficult and troubled times in our past. You have done great things for us; we are filled with joy. Help us to see your saving power in our world today. May we be restored in our faith just as Bartimaeus was in You. Amen

Congratulations to our newly ordained Priests of Broken Bay.

Bishop Anthony shares with us his homily from the Ordinations of Fr's Roger, Aldrin and Sam, that took place at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral on Monday 18 October.

For those interested the Livestream of the ordination is still available to watch at www.bbcatholic.org.au/ordination.

Prayer

For the newly ordained, Fathers Roger, Aldrin and Sam, That God will grant them a spirit of joy and generosity in their vocations.

Amen

For priestly vocations in the Diocese of Broken Bay: May God raise up from among our people, shepherds who are ardent but gentle servants of the Gospel.
Amen

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:7-9

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah
The Lord says this:

Shout with joy for Jacob!

Hail the chief of nations!

Proclaim! Praise! Shout!

'The Lord has saved his people,
the remnant of Israel!'

See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour:

a great company returning here.

They had left in tears,

I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble.

For I am a father to Israel,

and Ephraim is my first-born son.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 125

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs. R.

The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels
the Lord worked for them!'
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad. R.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap. R.

They go out, they go out, full of tears,
carrying seed for the sowing;
they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves. R

Second Reading

Hebrews 5:1-6

A reading from the letter to the
Hebrews

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness.
That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf 2 Timothy 1:10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done
away with death,
and brought us life through his gospel.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:46-52

A reading from the holy Gospel
according to Mark

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar,
was sitting at the side of the road.
When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
