The Gospel reading for this Sunday contains the great commandment Jesus gave us to love God and to love one another as ourselves. The verse that 'you love the Lord God with your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind' can be broken down into its three elements: Loving God with your heart requires a deep return to God. Loving God with your soul allows you to reflect and contemplate God and to pray constantly and with sincerity and gratitude.

Lastly, loving God with your mind compels you to give both your head and your heart to God.

Our mind is often caught up in logical and rational thought and can easily embrace the 'prove it to me' mentality.

However, loving God with one's mind requires a deep humility to accept that God exceeds our understanding and is beyond the depth of the human intellect.

How do you love God each day— with heart, soul and mind?

*"I love you, O Lord, my strength, my rock,
my fortress"*

Please remember to write your loved ones names clearly & neatly in Block capitals so they can be easily read. Thank you

All Soul's Remembrance Mass at Frenchs Forest Cemetery : Sunday 1st November

This Mass & blessing of the vaults has been cancelled this year by the organisers. Apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Face Masks at Mass.

We encourage parishioners to wear a mask when they attend Mass. Further guidelines about the wearing of face masks can be found at www.nsw.gov.au/covid-19/face-masks NSW Health strongly recommends people wear a mask, particularly in indoor settings, to keep everyone safe. Thank you .

Pray As You Go Start the day with a reflection on the day's Reading, with music, Scripture reading, and guided reflection. A simple way to connect with the Church's liturgy and to bring God into your day. Approximately 15 minutes. <https://pray-as-you-go.org/> or download App on Apple or Android.

Rosters Next Week: All Saints Day
St Kevin's Cleaning Team : C

Children's Week is a national celebration of children's rights, talents and citizenship held on the fourth Wednesday of October in Australia to coincide with Universal Children's Day. Each year the theme of Children's Week highlights a particular Children's Right. The Theme for 2020 is "Children have the right to meet together and to join groups and organisations, as long as this does not stop other people from enjoying their rights."

Children's Week is a wonderful opportunity to promote the rights of children & young people, and to celebrate their capacity to actively contribute to the world around them.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First Reading

Exodus 22:20-26

A reading from the book of Exodus
The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 17:2-4, 47, 51

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour. My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold. The Lord is worthy of all praise: when I call I am saved from my foes. R.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me. He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed. R.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words,

and my Father will love them and we will come to them.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 22:34-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.
