Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

The Feast of the Holy Trinity is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate. Speaking on Trinity Sunday, Pope Francis said that celebrating the Trinity is 'not so much a theological exercise, but a revolution in our way of life. God, in whom each person lives for the other in a continual relationship, in continual rapport, not for themselves, provokes us to live with others and for others'.

This is emphasised In today's second reading, you have been adopted into the very family circle of God... If we are God's children we share God's treasures.....' Today's feast is an invitation to contemplate having a seat at the table..... being refreshed and renewed, and hearing a call to mission. As you sit at the table with the Trinity, listen to their conversation as they look at our world.

What do you want to say? What do you sense is being asked of you?

'Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.'

Northern Beaches Pastoral Discernment Project

Warringah Parish is planning to hold several Consultation Forums over the upcoming weeks.

We are offering a variety of days, times and locations.

Groups may need to be consolidated depending on the numbers, so we ask you to nominate TWO options that suit you.

Warringah Parish Consultation Forums

Bishop Anthony Randazzo invites everyone in our community the opportunity to participate in the Pastoral Discernment Northern Beaches project. The Project aims to understand the unique challenges and opportunities distinct to the Northern Beaches Deanery in order to develop a Pastoral Mission that enables all in the community the opportunity to participate more fully in the Mission of Jesus Christ.

All members of our community are invited to participate in the consultation phase of the project, at the service of shaping a Pastoral Discernment Submission for Bishop Anthony's consideration.

You are invited to take part in one of the planned Warringah Parish Consultation Forums.

This is an opportunity for us to listen deeply to each other and attend to how the Holy Spirit is moving within us. We want to hear from you on how our parish and school community can give thanks to God for the way in which the Spirit is at work in the life of the local Church, and to consider new possibilities for both the growth and future of the Northern Beaches region. Please consider joining us! Invite family, friends, neighbours, young people – everyone is welcome! We want to reach a broad range of contributors to participate in this listening and dialogue opportunity. If you can't make the community listening and dialogue session, visit: <http://www.bbcatholic.org.au/pdnb> to submit your individual submission for consideration.

Use the camera app on your phone to scan the QR code below. It will open to a simple online form for you to register your interest in a consultation forum session. If you are unable to use the QR code you can see one of the helpers at the back of the church to fill in a paper copy instead of the online form.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

The next Baptism Workshop will take place on Wednesday 12th June at 7pm. Please email the office on warringahparish@bbcatholic.org.au for more information and to book a place.

FEDERAZIONE CATTOLICA ITALIANA

Un grande ringraziamento a tutti coloro che hanno partecipato al nostro Biggest morning tea (dinner dance) sabato scorso e a tutti coloro che hanno fatto donazioni o acquistato biscotti da vendere alla chiesa di St Kevins. Complessivamente abbiamo raccolto $ 11.000.00 per la lotta contro il cancro.

Non ho ancora inviato i soldi, quindi, se qualcuno volesse fare una donazione, sarà molto apprezzata.

A big thank you to anyone who participated at our biggest morning tea event (dinner dance) last Saturday and anyone who gave donations or purchased biscuits to sell at St Kevins church.

Altogether we have raised $11,000.00 for the fight against cancer. I have not yet sent the money, so, if anyone would like to make a donation, it will be much appreciated.

Something to think about ...

The Trinity is a community of love. We are invited and drawn into the lives of God the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit. May we cherish what we have been given and anticipate what the Trinity has in store for us.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? 'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:4-6, 9, 18-20, 22

R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.

By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke: and they came to be.

He commanded; they sprang into being. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

Second Reading

Romans 8:14-17

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans. Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out : Abba, Father.
