Jesus offers dramatic solutions to combat sin. The imagery he uses seems contrary to the nature of Jesus, but totally fits the deadly nature of sin. Our opposition to sin has to be radical and dramatic. Victims of vice can easily describe the pain and suffering it causes. We often live with our sin, hoping it will do us no harm. We should passionately surrender our sin to the healing balm of Reconciliation. We must celebrate the sacraments, and lean on our friends and family to help us as we reject our sinfulness.
Whom will you turn to today?

In this week's Gospel, the disciples try to prevent another person from performing miracles in Jesus' name. Jesus confronts the disciples' feelings of exclusivity when it comes to doing His work. This might also challenge us when we may have a narrow perspective on God's action in the world. Jesus also warns quite strongly against putting obstacles in the way of anyone who wants to believe in Him. How might we be a stumbling block to people in search of Jesus? How could we better live our lives so that those we meet can receive a faithful impression of what it means to be a Christian?

Reflection:

"It is very easy for a chosen group to become elitist, to claim for itself a monopoly of doing good. We Christians believe that the Church is God's special way of revealing himself to the world. But we really cannot go on to claim that therefore God is only to be found in the Church."

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, guide us in being true to our Creator by following the pathways of our saviour Jesus Christ. The ways of the Lord are finer than gold and sweeter than honey, for his Word brings joy to our hearts. Protect us from all evil and temptation as we offer this prayer to you, calling on the intercession of the angels and saints in heaven. Amen

"Love Without Limits" Webinar

Jesus taught us to both love our neighbour and to go make disciples. Join Cardinal Tagle, Nicky Gumbel and friends for an honest conversation around how we can live out this calling in the modern world.

September 29: Archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Messengers of God. From infancy to death, human life is surrounded by the watchful care of these powerful intercessors. These three Archangels are all found in the Bible at different points performing a number of roles e.g. protecting, communicating, healing and guiding. "Here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united in God" (CCC 336).

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments.

But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading

Numbers 11:25-29

A reading from the book of Numbers The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again.

Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look,' he said 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 18:8, 10, 12-14

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul.

The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.

The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. R.

So in them your servant finds instruction; great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults acquit me. R. From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me. Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. R

Second Reading

James 5:1-6

A reading from the letter of St James

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them - listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf John 17:17

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your word, O Lord, is truth: make us holy in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.

'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward. 'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.
