to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

Imagine if we always followed Jesus' advice to take a look at our own failings before criticising others. We would never criticise anyone, and how much happier our lives and relationships would be. Jesus reminds us that our inner spiritual health can be gauged by how we live our life, by our actions, by the fruit we bear.

How do we create a store of goodness in our heart then? Through staying close to Jesus in prayer, word and sacrament and filling ourselves with his goodness. We're still going to sin and make mistakes, but when we're drawing from the well of goodness in our heart, we're more likely to be able to share good fruits.

"Lord, it is good to give thanks to you"

Catechist Sunday Prayer for Catechists

Catechists

All: Loving God, Creator of all things, You call us to be in relationship with You and others. Thank you for calling our parish catechists and for giving them the opportunity to share the gift of Your love by serving others.

May all those with whom they share the gift of faith discover how You are present in all things.

May they come to know You, the one true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent.

May the grace of the Holy Spirit guide their hearts and lips so that they may remain constant in loving and praising You.

May they be a witness to the Gospel and a minister of Your truth.

May all their words and actions reflect Your love. Amen.

Renewal of Commitment & Commissioning

Priest: I ask the catechists to make their Commitment...

Catechists: I dedicate myself to be more like Christ in thought and in action.

May the light of Christ shine forth in me so that all those I teach may see him in me.

May Christ be our life and our light.

Priest: God bless you as you share the work of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus.

Catechists: Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord became my protector.
He brought me out to a place of freedom; he saved me because he delighted in me.

First Reading

Sirach 27:4-7

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus.

In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind, so too the defects of a man
appear in his talk.

The kiln tests the work of the potter,
the test of a man is in his conversation.

The orchard where the tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man's words betray what he feels.

Do not praise a man before he has spoken, since this is the test of men.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 91:2-3, 13-16

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord
to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches
of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree
and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord
they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green,
to proclaim that the Lord is just.
In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:54-58

A reading from the first letter of St
Paul to the Corinthians

When this perishable nature has put on imperishability, and when this mortal nature has put on immortality,
then the words of scripture will come true: Death is swallowed up in victory.
Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? Now the sting of death is sin, and sin gets its power from the Law. So let us thank God for giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Never give in then, my dear brothers,
never admit defeat; keep on working at the Lord's work always, knowing that, in the Lord, you cannot be labouring in vain.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Philippians 2:15-16

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars;
you are offering it the word of life.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 6:39-45

A reading from the holy Gospel
according to Luke

Jesus told a parable to his disciples,
'Can one blind man guide another?
Surely both will fall into a pit? The disciple is not superior to his teacher;
the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own?
How can you say to your brother,
"Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye," when you cannot see the plank in your own? Hypocrite!
Take the plank out of your own eye
first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.

'There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit. For every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles. A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man's words flow out of what fills his heart.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me, sing psalms to the name of the Lord Most High.
