1st Saturday 8:45am: Devotion &
Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

In today's Gospel Jesus knows that the people have nothing to eat and he is anxious to remedy that. We see him healing the sick, comforting the grieving, reaching out to the lost and outcast, to sinners. In the prayer he taught us, he urged us to ask the Father to 'give us this day our daily bread'. This bread can refer to himself, the Bread of Life, that we receive in Communion, but it also refers to the food we need for sustenance each day. Today we live in an age of incredible wastefulness, a throwaway society. Hugh amounts of food are dumped everyday. Today is a good day to consider our use of the resources of the earth. One of the paradoxes of life is how a little can go a long way, as the boy with the five barley loaves and two fish demonstrates, while excess often leads to waste and leaves many hungry.

he answers all our needs."

Sacrament of First Eucharist

The preparation for First Eucharist (Communion) begins with the enrolment meetings on 6 August (St Kevin's) or 8 August (St John's). Both meetings are at 7pm.

As you know, the program involves attending one of the enrolment meetings and all 4 lessons. At the enrolment meeting you will be given details on how to choose the time that you want to attend the lessons. You will also be able to choose the day you want your child to receive the sacrament. There will be only 35 places available at each of the masses for the children to receive First Eucharist. If you cannot attend the commitment meeting and all 4 lessons, there will be preparation for Eucharist at this time next year. For more information please contact Mary Baldwin : Sacramental Coordinator on baldwin.mary.50@gmail.com

The next Baptism Workshop will take place on Wednesday 14th August at 7pm. Please email the office on warringahparish@bbcatholic.org.au for more information and to book a place.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Garden Working Bee next Saturday, August 3rd, from 9am to clear and clean the front garden of St Kevin's Presbytery. We would be thankful for your help.

The annual Peter's Pence Appeal 2024

This weekend we join with other Parishes across the world in taking up the Vatican's annual Peter's Pence Collection. The Peter's Pence Collection provides for the charitable works of mercy identified by His Holiness, Pope Francis including emergency assistance to those in need due to natural disaster, war, oppression and disease. Your generosity allows the Holy Father to respond to those suffering with love and compassion. You can make a gift using the Peter's Pence collection envelope available in both churches. Thank you for your generosity.

Parish Planned Giving

Just a reminder that planned giving envelopes for this tax year are available. If you would like to receive a box of the weekly giving envelopes, please contact the parish office. Thank you for your financial support to the parish and to all Parishioners who have already signed up.

Ways to give to the Parish: (2nd Collection)

1. Weekly Cash giving through the planned giving envelopes.
2. Monthly / Quarterly Credit Card. Please contact the parish office for more information.
3. Collection plates during Mass .
4. Tap and Go machines using your credit/debit card, at the back of both Churches.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

First Reading

2 Kings 4:42-44

A reading from the second book of the Kings.

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear. 'Give it to the people to eat,' Elisha said. But his servant replied, 'How can I serve this to a hundred men?' 'Give it to the people to eat' he insisted for the Lord says this, "They will eat and have some over." He served them; they ate and had some over, as the Lord had said.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:10-11, 15-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. R.

The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time. You open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live. R.

The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds. He is close to all who call him, who call on him from their hearts. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:1-6

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians.

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, through all and within all.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:1-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee - or of Tiberias - and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover.

Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, 'Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?' He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, 'Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said, 'There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?' Jesus said to them, 'Make the people sit down.' There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, 'Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.' So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, 'This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.' Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
