Today's readings set the tone for the season of Advent. The servants in today's Gospel were physically watching for the return of their master; our watching is of a spiritual nature. Our readiness to welcome the Lord rests in our heart. There we sort through the obstacles that prevent us from recognising the Lord in the midst of our lives; that is, things like busy schedules that interfere with a time for prayer; like a singular focus on our own interests at the expense of the needs of others; like a hectic social schedule that keeps us from the liturgical celebrations of the Church.

Be alert.

'Lord. Let us turn to you: let us see your face and we shall be saved'.

We have all had a difficult time this year and the Volunteers within Vinnies thank all of our donors who have assisted those affected by the bushfires, the floods, the drought, and the Covid 19 Crisis.

Covid 19 Crisis

Because of the virus restrictions this year, Dee Why St Kevin's will be collecting financial donations from parishioners to distribute (as "food vouchers" instead of hampers" to poorer members of the community. Narrabeena St Johns SVDP will be distributing hampers as well as food vouchers. Further details will be outlined after mass

Advent.

Advent is the season that prepares us for the coming joy of Christmas. Let us hope that this joy can be shared with those we assist. God Bless. John COLBY at NARRAWEENA , BILL EYRE, DEE WHY.

PARISH FUNDRAISER - "How would you like $1,000 for Christmas?"

Parish revenue is down however expenses are largely fixed. Therefore we are holding a Christmas fundraiser which we hope will be fun.

There will be a Lucky Dip starting now.

For $20 a ticket, you have one chance in 200 of winning $1,000. There is a first prize of $1,000 in each parish centre.

Simply buy a number then hope your number is drawn out at the end. Feeling Lucky?

Once all 200 are sold then Fr Rei will select the winning number out of a hat. Hopefully that matches the number alongside your name on the Yellow Board.

To preserve these excellent odds, sales will stop at 200 tickets. In order to keep the winning prize high, there is no second or third prize. Winner takes all!

Please see the ticket sellers who will record your contact details and show that number as being sold on the big piece of yellow cardboard at the back of the church.

The identical Lucky Dip is being sold in each parish centre. There will be 200 tickets sold at St Kevin's for $20 each - and 200 tickets at $20 each in Narrabeena. You, family or friends are welcome to "invest" in both lucky dips if you wish. Good Luck

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God.
In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame.
Nor let my enemies exult over me;
and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

First Reading

Isaiah 63:16-17; 64:1,3-8

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
You, Lord, yourself are our Father,
Our Redeemer is your ancient name.
Why, Lord, leave us to stray from your ways and harden our hearts against fearing you?
Return, for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your inheritance.
Oh, that you would tear the heavens open and come down - at your Presence the mountains would melt.
No ear has heard, no eye has seen any god but you act like this for those who trust him.
You guide those who act with integrity and keep your ways in mind.
You were angry when we were sinners; we had long been rebels against you. We were all like men unclean, all that integrity of ours is like filthy clothing. We have all withered like leaves and our sins blew us away like the wind.
No one invoked your name or roused himself to catch hold of you.
For you hid your face from us and gave us up to the power of our sins. And yet, Lord, you are our Father; we the clay, you the potter, we are all the work of your hand.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 79:2-3, 15-16, 18-19

R. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

O shepherd of Israel, hear us,
shine forth from your cherubim throne.
O Lord, rouse up your might,

O Lord, come to our help. R.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore,
look down from heaven and see,
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. R.

May your hand be on the man you have chosen, the man you have given your strength. And we shall never forsake you again: give us life that we may call upon your name. R.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

I never stop thanking God for all the graces you have received through Jesus Christ. I thank him that you have been enriched in so many ways, especially in your teachers and preachers; the witness to Christ has indeed been strong among you so that you will not be without any of the gifts of the Spirit while you are waiting for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed; and he will keep you steady and without blame until the last day, the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, because God by calling you has joined you to his Son, Jesus Christ; and God is faithful.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Ps 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love,
and grant us your salvation.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 13:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come. It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own task; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake. So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake!'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.
