Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This feast day not only provides an opportunity to renew our devotion in the Blessed Sacrament but also to deepen our understanding of what Eucharist means.

The word Eucharist comes from the Greek term meaning, 'thanksgiving'. We believe that in the consecrated bread and wine of the Eucharist, Christ is really present. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus takes the bread and wine and says that the new "covenant" is his body and blood poured out and shared. The body of Christ is also present in the community gathered in prayer, and in the suffering of people who are being persecuted; in the proclamation of God's Word and in the unexpected and surprising moments of every passing day. On this traditional feast day, how can we broaden our understanding of the meaning of consuming and sharing the Eucharist?

of the Lord'

Northern Beaches Pastoral Discernment Project

Warringah Parish is planning to hold several Consultation Forums over the upcoming weeks.

We are offering a variety of days, times and locations. Groups may need to be consolidated depending on the numbers, so we ask you to nominate TWO options that suit you.

Warringah Parish Consultation Forums

Bishop Anthony Randazzo invites everyone in our community the opportunity to participate in the Pastoral Discernment Northern Beaches project. The Project aims to understand the unique challenges and opportunities distinct to the Northern Beaches Deanery in order to develop a Pastoral Mission that enables all in the community the opportunity to participate more fully in the Mission of Jesus Christ.

All members of our community are invited to participate in the consultation phase of the project, at the service of shaping a Pastoral Discernment Submission for Bishop Anthony's consideration.

You are invited to take part in one of the planned Warringah Parish Consultation Forums.

This is an opportunity for us to listen deeply to each other and attend to how the Holy Spirit is moving within us.

We want to hear from you on how our parish and school community can give thanks to God for the way in which the Spirit is at work in the life of the local Church, and to consider new possibilities for both the growth and future of the Northern Beaches region. Please consider joining us!

Invite family, friends, neighbours, young people – everyone is welcome! We want to reach a broad range of contributors to participate in this listening and dialogue opportunity.

If you can't make the community listening and dialogue session, visit: <http://www.bbcatholic.org.au/pdnb> to submit your individual submission for consideration.

Use the camera app on your phone to scan the QR code below. It will open to a simple online form for you to register your interest in a consultation forum session. If you are unable to use the QR code you can see one of the helpers at the back of the church to fill in a paper copy instead of the online form.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock .

First Reading

Exodus 24:3-8

A reading from the book of Exodus. Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, 'We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed.' Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey.' then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. 'This' he said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.'

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 115:12-13, 15-18

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me?

The cup of salvation I will raise;

I will call on the Lord's name. R.

O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I; you have loosened my bonds. R.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:

I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:11-15

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;

whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.'

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.
