Mary ( prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

Today and for the next three Sundays we get a continuous reading of the Gospel of John. It is an extended discourse on what it means to believe in Jesus and follows the feeding miracle and Jesus' walking on water. Jesus wants us to 'work for food that endures to eternal life.' What is this food? As the Exodus passage tells us, it is enough only for the day and, we will have hungry stomachs again tomorrow. We are invited to feast on the Bread of Life, Jesus himself, who will not fulfil our physical hunger, but feed our souls as well. Only Jesus can fill us abundantly and eternally to overflowing with blessing, and our belief in him is the only requirement to feast at this table of joy.

All are welcome —come, see, believe!

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Sacrament of First Eucharist

The preparation for First Eucharist (Communion) begins with the enrolment meetings on 6 August (St Kevin's) or 8 August (St John's). Both meetings are at 7pm. As you know, the program involves attending one of the enrolment meetings and all 4 lessons. At the enrolment meeting you will be given details on how to choose the time that you want to attend the lessons. You will also be able to choose the day you want your child to receive the sacrament. There will be only 35 places available at each of the masses for the children to receive First Eucharist. If you cannot attend the commitment meeting and all 4 lessons, there will be preparation for Eucharist at this time next year. For more information please contact Mary Baldwin : Sacramental Coordinator on baldwin.mary.50@gmail.com

Change of office hours on 5th August

Something to think about ...

Jesus engaged his disciples in finding what food was available, in distributing it and collecting what was left over. May we help the Lord in finding spiritual food for the hungry and sharing with them.

Sharing the Voices Dinner and Conversation hosted by the Parish of Frenchs Forest | Friday 9 August. All are invited to attend this event as part of the ongoing Sharing the Story Sharing the Land relationship with the Aboriginal people of the Northern Beaches which has been going for more than 25 years.

About. A dinner and conversation almost a year since the failure of the referendum to enshrine an Indigenous Voice to Parliament in the Australian Constitution. The same underlying issues which prompted the referendum proposal continue to affect Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. On World Day for Indigenous Peoples, a gathering to listen to each other and continue to support each other in this time of recognition.

National Vocations Week 4th-11th August 2024.

On the 8th of August, we commemorate Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop, Australia's first canonised saint and cherished patron. As we celebrate her legacy, we also mark National Vocations Awareness Week, which runs from 4 -11 August 2024. During this special week, let us pray for more devoted priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women as we recognise and support the critical role of families in fostering vocations. May they find courage in Jesus Christ, draw strength from our united faith, and embrace the precious gift of their vocation with grace and gratitude.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me!
You are my rescuer, my help; O Lord, do not delay.

First Reading

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

A reading from the book of Exodus. The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, 'Why did we not die at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our heart's content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day's portion; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not.' 'I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, "Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your heart's content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God.'" And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp. When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, 'What is that?' not knowing what it was. 'That' said Moses to them 'is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 77:3-4, 23-25, 54

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

The things we have heard and understood, the things our fathers have told us, we will tell to the next generation: the glories of the Lord and his might. R.

He commanded the clouds above and opened the gates of heaven. He rained down manna for their food, and gave them bread from heaven. R. Mere men ate the bread of angels. He sent them abundance of food. He brought them to his holy land, to the mountain which his right hand had won. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians.

I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus. You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires. Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God's way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:24-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered:

'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat.

Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.'

Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'

Jesus answered:

'I tell you solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' 'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered: 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

You have given us, O Lord, bread from heaven, endowed with all delights and sweetness in every taste.
