In the readings today, Ezekiel, Paul and Jesus manifest their vocation as God's accredited ambassadors and prophets. Ezekiel is asked by God to go and preach to rebellious Israel. Paul, during his ministry, experiences the power of Satan as he is afflicted with a 'horn in the flesh'. Jesus was misunderstood and rejected by the people of his own home town.

In all three situations the protagonists are given strength and sustained by the power of God working in them. Jesus was aware of his role as the prophet sent by his Father and was not dissuaded by the opposition and rejection of his townsfolk. When we follow God's precepts and accept to be his messengers, we will experience moments of trial, misunderstanding and rejection. But we will always be strengthened and sustained by the plentiful grace of God.

'Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.'

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading

Ezekiel 2:2-5

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel
The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you up to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 122

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens: my eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords. R.

Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God till he shows us his mercy. R.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt. Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich, with the proud man's disdain. R.

Second Reading

Corinthians 12:7-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

of Luke 4:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.
