For Jesus “the little ones” are those who are not so full of their own wisdom that they are oblivious to the revelations of God. Like children, they are always open to learning and are amazed at what can help them to grow in understanding the world around them. These are the people that Jesus invites to hear his word and to come to know the Father. Even when they might find that difficult, he assures them, and us, that his “burden is light”. In other words, he is always there to help us, to walk with us, and to share our journey.

Something to Think About

Do you sometimes feel worried about things? Do you sometimes feel tired or frustrated and just need a rest?

In today's gospel we learn that we can give our worries to Jesus and he will give us rest and peace.

Confirmation 2020

If your child has been baptised and is in year 2 or above, he/she is able to be enrolled in the preparation programme. Due to COVID restrictions, we are asking to prepare your child at home by going through the lessons over a 4-week period. Please collect your child's preparation pack from the office before 14 August.

We are hopeful that Confirmation will take place on 12th September ( St John's church) and 19th September ( St Kevin's church) . Dates and times to be confirmed.

Please contact : baldwin.mary.50@gmail.com or the parish office for more information.

KEEP calm
& PRAY

Almighty and all-merciful God, lover of the human race, healer of all our wounds, in whom there is no shadow of death, save us in this time of crisis; grant wisdom and courage to our leaders; watch over all medical people as they tend the sick and work for a cure; stir in us a sense of solidarity beyond all isolation; if our doors are closed, let our hearts be open. By the power of your love destroy the virus of fear, that hope may never die and the light of Easter, the triumph of life, may shine upon us and the whole world. Through Jesus Christ, the Lord risen from the dead, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Holy Mary, health of the sick, pray for us.

St Joseph, guardian of us all, pray for us.

The Story

In today's gospel story from Matthew, Jesus makes a clear delineation between 'wise and educated people' and 'ordinary people' (in other translations 'mere children'). The first group probably refers to the Pharisees and others who rejected the messages of both John the Baptist and Jesus. 'Ordinary people' seems to refer to both those who are 'child-like' in their understanding (the disciples) as well as to children themselves.

The key message of today's gospel is: do not worry, for Jesus is gentle and humble and will give us rest.

Family Discussion

The Pharisees were supposed to teach the people about God and his Kingdom. But what does Jesus say about the Pharisees? Who does Jesus invite to come to him? The Pharisees were harsh teachers. They told the people to do things even God hadn't asked them to do. It was like they made them carry a heavy load that made them tired.

Jesus invites people to come and learn from him. What sort of a teacher is Jesus? Jesus wants to teach us to be God's friend and then to live God's way. How do you become a friend of God's? What are some of the things Jesus teaches us about living God's way?

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading Zechariah 9:9-10

A reading from the prophet Zechariah
The Lord says this: 'Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion! Shout with gladness, daughter of Jerusalem! See now, your king comes to you; he is victorious, he is triumphant, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem; the bow of war will be banished. He will proclaim peace for the nations. His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 144:1-2, 8-11, 13-14

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will give you glory, O God my King,
I will bless your name for ever.
I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever. R.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. R.

The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds. The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down. R.

Second Reading Romans 8:9, 11-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
Your interests are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation of Matthew 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 11:25-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Jesus exclaimed, 'I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon
