God created man and woman for each other. We encounter Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden but the blessed state of their existence is short lived. Sin enters the garden and both the man and the woman blame each other rather than take responsibility for it. The Pharisees question Jesus on the legitimacy of divorce and he redirects them to God's original design of man and woman as one flesh which cannot be divided. In some ways the attitude of the Pharisees in questioning Jesus echoes the excuses raised by Adam and Eve for their sin. In contrast, the innocence and acceptance of the children in the final verses of today's Gospel , model an appropriate attitude for those who seek the kingdom. The second reading from Hebrews provides the bridge. Through Christ's death and resurrection, we can regain our original innocence and enter the family of God.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ...

From marriage there is the move to children. Jesus was happy to meet and engage with the children, despite the indignation of the disciples. We pray for the freedom of children to approach Jesus and to be better members of his kingdom.

St Kevin's church has a beautiful antique (early Twentieth century) organ in good working order, and we are looking for a caring home for it. If you or someone you know might be interested in this wonderful instrument, please reach out to the parish office for more details.

Welcome back Fr Resty. We are looking forward to hearing about your adventures in Rome.

The Catholic Parish of Epping & Carlingford has been honoured by the reception and installation of a First Class relic of St Gerard Majella.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

First Reading

Genesis 2:18-24

A reading from the book of Genesis. The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate.' So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them; each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed:

'This at last is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh!

This is to be called woman, for this was taken from man.'

This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 127

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!

by the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. R.

Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. R.

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem all the days of your life! May you see your children's children. On Israel, peace! R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:9-11

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind. As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

1 John 4:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

If we love one another, God will live in us in perfect love.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:2-16

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them. 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.'

People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
