The exercise of forgiveness can often be difficult. Whether we seek forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation or attempt to be reconciled with someone whom we have hurt, it can be an emotional struggle. Jesus' exhortation in today's reading describes reconciliation as both an individual act and a command practice. When someone sins against us, we are called upon to meet that person face to face. If that does not lead to reconciliation, we should involve others who can help to restore a bond of communion. However, the first step is a desire in our heart to be reconciled, restore peace and to live in freedom from our sin.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the Lord.

Almighty and all-merciful God, lover of the human race, healer of all our wounds, in whom there is no shadow of death, save us in this time of crisis; grant wisdom and courage to our leaders; watch over all medical people as they tend the sick and work for a cure; stir in us a sense of solidarity beyond all isolation; if our doors are closed, let our hearts be open. By the power of your love destroy the virus of fear, that hope may never die and the light of Easter, the triumph of life, may shine upon us and the whole world. Through Jesus Christ, the Lord risen from the dead, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.
 Holy Mary, health of the sick, pray for us.
 St Joseph, guardian of us all, pray for us.

Happy Father's Day

God our Father,

We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We also pray for our Priests, may the Holy Spirit lead them and guide them in their own vocation. Amen.

Happy Father's Day to our Priests and all fathers in our Parish. May God Bless you all.

Thank you to all parishioners who assisted in the cleaning of both St John's and St Kevin's Churches over the last 2 weekends. We are very grateful for your hard work and for giving up your free time to assist. May God bless you all. Thank you

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

First Reading Ezekiel 33:7-9

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel
The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows, 'Son of man, I have appointed you as sentry to the House of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, warn them in my name. If I say to a wicked man: Wicked wretch, you are to die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked man to renounce his ways, then he shall die for his sin, but I will hold you responsible for his death. If, however, you do warn a wicked man to renounce his ways and repent, and he does not repent, then he shall die for his sin, but you yourself will have saved your life.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 94:1-2, 6-9

R. O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord. R.

Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. R.

O that today you would listen to his voice! 'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your fathers put me to the test; when they tried me, though they saw my work.' R.

Second Reading Romans 13:8-10

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
Avoid getting into debt, except the debt of mutual love. If you love your fellow men you have carried out your obligations. All the commandments: You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet, and so on, are summed up in this single command: You must love your neighbour as yourself. Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour; that is why it is the answer to every one of the commandments.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation 2 Corinthians 5:19

Alleluia, alleluia!
God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 18:15-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Jesus said to his disciples: 'If your brother does something wrong, go and have it out with him alone, between your two selves. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you: the evidence of two or three witnesses is required to sustain any charge. But if he refuses to listen to these, report it to the community; and if he refuses to listen to the community, treat him like a pagan or a tax collector.

'I tell you solemnly, whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.

'I tell you solemnly once again, if two of you on earth agree to ask anything at all, it will be granted to you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three meet in my name, I shall be there with them.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.
