The widow in the first reading responded to Elijah's request with honesty—she was about to prepare the last meal she and her son would have before they starved to death. Nevertheless she did as she was asked and shared the last of their food with Elijah. And the three of them lived because of God's provision. In the Gospel, Jesus drew the disciples attention to another widow as a way of enabling them to see discipleship in action. He highlighted innate goodness which leads to generous giving. Goodness is quiet; literally so in the case of the widow, for the tiny coins she dropped into the treasury would not have made a sound. Goodness is not showy, the widow did not seek attention with lengthy prayers or elaborate clothing. Goodness is generous. It is impossible to get one's mind round the fact that she gave "all she had to live on"

"Give and give again, what God has given thee"

FEAST: Dedication of the Lateran Basilica – 9th November It is not common for us to celebrate the feast of a church building, so why this one? Built by Emperor Constantine around the year 324 on the 'Lateran Hill' in Rome, this beautiful church is actually the Cathedral for the Diocese of Rome, and the official seat of the Pope as Bishop of Rome, not St. Peter's Basilica! We celebrate this dedication to signify our global unity as a Church under the one leadership and care of the 'See of Peter.'

Pastoral Works Collection

This weekend we will continue our Pastoral Works Broken Bay collection. St Edmund's College for the disabled, one of five long-term beneficiaries of donations, is the featured charity for the November appeal. St Edmund's, a Catholic school in the Edmund Rice tradition, supports 120 students with a range of disabilities such as intellectual, sensory impairment or autism. Donations will help provide vital fee assistance to families in our Catholic community so that their children can access the services offered by St Edmund's. Envelopes are available in your pew. Thank you for your support.

St Rocco Mass

Will take place in St Kevin's Church Dee Why at the 10.30am Italian Mass on Sunday 21st November . St Rocco is venerated in the church as the protector against the plague and all contagious diseases. His statue depicts him with his left hand pointing to an open sore on his left leg. His body is enclosed in a glass tomb in the church of St Rocco in Venice Italy.

Welcome to the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time In today's Gospel, Jesus is teaching in the temple and notices the monetary contributions being added into the treasury. He offers his listeners a teaching that praises the poor widow, who gives an amount - though small - that has cost her much, compared to the giving of the well-off who flaunt large amounts so as to be admired by others. Let's search our own hearts this week for traces of showiness in the good that we do and ask for the grace to give sacrificially as Jesus suggests.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading

1 Kings 17:10-16

A reading from the first book of the Kings

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down.

It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R. The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 12:38-44

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
