The Scriptures reveal that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit cannot be understood apart from their unity. To be in a relationship with God is to enter a relationship with all that God is and all that God does. Our union with God is a union of concern for all God has created. We are initiated into that union at Baptism, and at that moment we no longer exist in isolation but are joined with the communion of saints; we become members of a body that we dare to name the Body of Christ. Every time we invoke the Trinitarian God we affirm this truth.

"Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own".

Parish activities for children and associated child related roles.

With Masses returning to a larger public celebration (up to 50 people) please ensure all those who are involved in a child related activity have a valid verified Working with Child Check and the records held in the Parish Office are current.

All those who have identified through completing your Child Related Activity Parish Register that don't have a check cannot return to child related activities without it (this is required by law).

Planned Giving Envelopes.

The planned giving envelopes for the financial year 2020/2021 have been received and will be ready to collect next week at both churches. If you would like to become a new giver, please contact the parish office.

Thank you for your financial support to the Parish this year.

Message from Bishop Anthony

This weekend we commemorate the Feast of the Blessed Trinity. It is a feast about love, relationships, fellowship and communion. The Blessed Trinity is the model of life and holiness for us.

I have chosen this Feast to admit two of our seminarians as Candidates for Holy Orders, Sam French on Saturday at Woy Woy and Roger Delmonte on Sunday at the Cathedral. Candidacy is a public commitment on the part of the community of the Church to accompany these men as they move to the next stage of their formation for the priesthood. I invite you to pray for Sam and Roger, asking Jesus the Good Shepherd, to form them as shepherds after His own heart. Please keep safe and well in these challenging times.

Be reassured of a remembrance in my daily prayers and at Mass. Blessings and thanks for all that you do.

+Anthony

The Father is my hope. The Son is my refuge. The Holy Spirit is my protector. Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, now and forever. Let us praise the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; Let us bless and exalt God above all forever.

God is love. The overflowing love of the Father and the Son, is the Holy Spirit poured out. We are invited into this love and are called to share the love we have been gifted with others; a love which is never rationed and gives peace and hope. We are called to imitate God and love as generously as he does; to go out and proclaim the Good News, that we are saved because of His life-giving love for us.

Position Vacant - Development & Relationships Manager, Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay

The Chancery of the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay is recruiting for the role of Development & Relationships Manager. This is a full time role based at Pennant Hills.

The Development & Relationships Manager is responsible for fundraising & development strategy, fundraising infrastructure, program & collateral, capacity building and parish support services. You will work closely with the parishes of the Diocese and provide support as they carry out the mission of the Catholic Church.

For the full advertisement see the Positions Vacant page of the Diocesan website: <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/people/positions-vacant>

The Discernment papers from the Writing and Discernment Groups are now published, encompassing everything said from the 1st (Listening and Dialogue) and ongoing 2nd (Listening and Discernment) phases of the Plenary Council.

As the nation continues to recover we ask the Holy Spirit to continue to inflame the passion we feel in proclaiming the gospel and to remind us to keep our ears, eyes and heart open to those around us who are most in need.

Welcome to the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity God is love. The overflowing love of the Father and the Son, is the Holy Spirit poured out. We are invited into this love and are called to share the love we have been gifted with others; a love which is never rationed and gives peace and hope. We are called to imitate God and love as generously as he does; to go out and proclaim the Good News, that we are saved because of His life-giving love for us .

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading

Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

A reading from the book of Exodus

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Daniel 3:52-56

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.

R. Glory and praise for ever!
Blest your glorious holy name.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the temple of your glory.

R. Glory and praise for ever!
You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest who gaze into the depths.

R. Glory and praise for ever!
You are blest in the firmament of the heaven.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
Jesus said to Nicodemus, 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved.

No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.
