Today's Gospel completes a picture of Jesus' ministry: preaching, curing the sick, driving out demons, and then moving on to continue this work in another place. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus did this throughout Galilee.

Jesus' compassion and healing of the sick is a sign of the Kingdom of God. The Church continues to extend Christ's healing presence to others in its ministry to the sick. In the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, the Church prays for spiritual and physical healing, forgiveness of sins, and comfort for those who are suffering from illness.

We also notice the importance of prayer in Jesus' daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning, removed himself from the crowds, and went to a deserted place to pray. When the disciples found him, he told them that it was time to move on. We believe that in his prayers Jesus found guidance and direction from God. We also bring our decision-making to God in prayer, asking for his guidance and direction in our lives.

"Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted."

Today : Sunday of the Word of God – 7th February 2021.

The Australian Bishops have determined that, in Australia, the Sunday of the Word of God will be celebrated on the first Sunday in February each year. In 2021, this falls on Sunday 7 February.

The Diocese of Broken Bay has prepared a 2-minute video to mark this day and to encourage engagement with the Bible. It may be shown at Masses or shared through social media and can be accessed on YouTube here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5oy-TzO JGA&feature=emb_logo

No need to book for Masses but Parishioners attending a religious service will be required to provide their name & contact details (phone or email) when they enter the church, for contact tracing. The details of one adult member per household is sufficient

(Recorded details will only be used for the purposes of contact tracing)

Thank you.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Eucharist Preparation

Children who have received the sacraments of Confirmation and Reconciliation are able to prepare for the sacrament of First Eucharist this year. The preparation will begin with a commitment meeting on 16th February 2021 at Kevin's church (7pm) or 18th February at St John's (7pm), and continue through the month of March. The sacrament will be received on Saturday 27th March (St Kevin's) at 12noon or Sunday 28th March (St John's) at 12 noon. Please refer to the parish website for any changes due to COVID 19.

If you have any questions please email Mary on baldwin.mary.50@gmail.com

Parish Collections, Planned Giving and Donations

Our modern times show that we are becoming more and more a cashless society. It is also affecting the way we financially support our Parish.

Donations and Planned Giving can now be made direct to the Parish via the website;

<https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/warringah> or through online banking.

Once you access the Parish website, go to GIVING and follow the instructions.

The Parish will continue to offer Planned Giving Envelopes and credit card giving. For further details, please contact the Parish Office.

PROJECT COMPASSION

GO FURTHER TOGETHER

Caritas Australia invites you to be part of their Project Compassion Virtual Immersions via Zoom during each week of the Lenten season. These digital engagements will focus on prayer and reflection, Catholic Social Teaching and an interview and Q&A with Caritas International Program staff. Sessions will run Tuesdays and Thursdays for one hour across Australia. Please register at <http://lent.caritas.org.au/virtualimmersions>

We are also seeking a parish point of contact for Caritas initiatives and events. If you would like to take on this role, please contact the Parish Office.

Thank you.

Safer internet Day 2021, Tuesday 9 February

Safer internet Day is an opportunity to raise awareness about the role we can all play in creating a safe online spaces. We can all start the chat about online safety.

Visit www.esafety.gov.au/SID to find out how to start the chat at work, at home and in your community.

Safeguarding children and young people online requires adults to know what they are accessing and any risks associated.

Digital Liturgy Resources

Laudate (App) This free App has a large number of resources at hand, including the day's Readings; the Liturgy of the Hours; the Rosary, Stations of the Cross, Prayers, Catholic documents including the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and even links to many Catholic media sites. Download for Apple and Android.

Pray As You Go Start the day with a reflection on the day's Reading, with music, Scripture reading, and guided reflection. A simple way to connect with the Church's liturgy and to bring God into your day. Approximately 15 minutes. <https://pray-as-you-go.org/> or download App on Apple or Android.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

First Reading Job 7:1-4, 6-7

A reading from the prophet Job
Job began to speak:

Is not man's life on earth nothing more than pressed service, his time no better than hired drudgery?

Like the slave, sighing for the shade, or the workman with no thought but his wages, months of delusion I have assigned to me, nothing for my own but nights of grief.

Lying in bed I wonder, 'When will it be day?'

Risen I think, 'How slowly evening comes!'

Restlessly I fret till twilight falls.

Swifter than a weaver's shuttle my days have passed, and vanished, leaving no hope behind.

Remember that my life is but a breath, and that my eyes will never again see joy.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 146:1-6

R. Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted.

Praise the Lord for he is good;
sing to our God for he is loving:
to him our praise is due. R.

The Lord builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles,
he heals the broken-hearted,
he binds up all their wounds.
he fixes the number of the stars;
he calls each one by its name. R.

Our Lord is great and almighty;
his wisdom can never be measured.
The Lord raises the lowly;
he humbles the wicked to the dust. R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I do not boast of preaching the gospel, since it is a duty which has been laid on me; I should be punished if I did not preach it! If I had chosen this work myself, I might have been paid for it, but as I have not, it is a responsibility which has been put into my hands. Do you know what my reward is? It is this: in my preaching, to be able to offer the Good News free, and not insist on the rights which the gospel gives me.

So though I am not a slave of any man I have made myself the slave of everyone so as to win as many as I could. For the weak I made myself weak. I made myself all things to all men in order to save some at any cost; and I still do this, for the sake of the gospel, to have a share in its blessing.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 8:17

Alleluia, alleluia!

He bore our sickness,
and endured our suffering.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 1:29-39

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

On leaving the synagogue, Jesus went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew. Now Simon's mother-in-law had gone to bed with fever, and they told him about her straightaway. He went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to wait on them.

That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils. The whole town came crowding round the door, and he cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another; he also cast out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was.

In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there. Simon and his companions set out in search of him, and when they found him they said, 'Everybody is looking for you.' He answered, 'Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can preach there too, because that is why I came.' And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out devils.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men, for he satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry he fills with good things.
