Familiarity breeds contempt. So the well known saying goes. And we see it realised in today's Gospel. In one way the people of Jesus' home town knew him too well, but in essence they knew him too little. They knew a lot about him— his family background, his relatives, his trade, his education or rather lack of it. All of this blinded them to seeing who he really was—a prophet, someone through whom the word of God was being spoken and fulfilled. They had bought into the well-known saying, 'can anything good come from Nazareth?' It was beyond their comprehension that God would choose someone from Nazareth to be a prophet. Jesus was amazed at their lack of faith. Are we guilty of the same blindness? Does familiarity mean that we too fail to see the face of God in the members of our family and local community, in the poor and outcast?

Free Seminar and Morning Tea.

Do you have a Will or need it updated? Do you know what Enduring Guardianship is, or want to know more about Bequests? The Diocese is hosting a Free Seminar and Morning Tea to answer all your questions with lawyer and parishioner Cecilia Castle on Tuesday, 20 August 2024 (10.30 am to 12.30 pm) at The Epping Club, Epping. More details below:

An information/promotion pack was handed out to all parishes during the Clergy Conference last week.

If you would like to know more, please send an email to events@bbcatholic.org.au

Thank you for your submissions which have now closed!

Members of the Northern Beaches community have participated in Phase Three of the Pastoral Discernment Project, the Community Engagement phase, over the past few months.

Many Submissions have been received, and we offer our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the many Consultation Facilitators and Community Leaders who have worked with their Parish, School, and CatholicCare communities, inviting the community to participate, listen, and dialogue together to shape a Pastoral Discernment Submission for Bishop Anthony's consideration.

What's Next?

All members of the Diocese are invited to attend the upcoming PDNB Conversation Forum, which will be held on Saturday, July 27. The Conversation Forum will be an opportunity to hear about the themes that are beginning to emerge. It will also provide participants with the opportunity to engage in further dialogue following the recent local Community Consultation gatherings.

Time: 12:00pm for light refreshments for a 12:30pm start. Finish Time: 3:30pm RSVP: <https://forms.office.com/r/qvaBara0f2>

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ...

The carpenter's son became the preacher. His prophetic message challenged his listeners. Jesus was amazed at their lack of faith. May we be prophetic voices for Jesus among those who are hostile to his message.

Sacrament of First Eucharist

The preparation for First Eucharist (Communion) begins with the enrolment meetings on 6 August (St Kevin's) or 8 August (St John's). Both meetings are at 7pm.

As you know, the program involves attending one of the enrolment meetings and all 4 lessons. At the enrolment meeting you will be given details on how to choose the time that you want to attend the lessons. You will also be able to choose the day you want your child to receive the sacrament. There will be only 35 places available at each of the masses for the children to receive First Eucharist.

If you cannot attend the commitment meeting and all 4 lessons, there will be preparation for Eucharist at this time next year. For more information please contact Mary Baldwin : Sacramental Coordinator on baldwin.mary.50@gmail.com

Make a difference with Caritas Australia. Do you feel called to help with the healing of a broken world? Caritas Australia is looking for a special person in the diocese of Broken Bay to help carry the message of a faith that does justice to our schools, parishes and communities. You will be part of a vibrant team that is active in every diocese in Australia. You will be supported and meet some terrific colleagues. You will be helping the lives of some of the most marginal members of the human family. The work is part-time, flexible and immensely rewarding. Please send an expression of interest to dominic.smith@caritas.org.au

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading

Ezekiel 2:2-5

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel. The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you up to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 122

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens: my eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords. R.

Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God till he shows us his mercy. R.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt. Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich, with the proud man's disdain. R.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 12:7-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud, I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf Luke 4:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.
