Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

In today's Gospel, we read of how a solid household cannot be divided or destroyed. Jesus is clear in his message that a divided household will crumble under pressure. However, the good news is that Jesus invites us into a different pathway— a pathway of strength, inclusivity and hope. How strong is your household, whether it be your family, community or workplace? What little actions can you perform to raise the group's morale and cohesion?

'With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption'

Consultation Questions

Communities across the Northern Beaches are invited to respond to the below questions through the Conversation in the Spirit methodology, listening and dialoguing together, at the service of shaping a pastoral discernment submission for Bishop Anthony's consideration.

- 1) The religious composition of the Northern Beaches community shows a high number of people identifying with no religion, many of whom may have once identified as Catholic. What relationships do we have with the people in this group? What opportunities for mission exist in the wider community that this group can be involved in?
- 2) The data highlights that there has been an increase in the number of Catholic Families on the Northern Beaches between the years 2016 and 2021. What ministries may need to be strengthened or developed to meet the spiritual and pastoral needs of these families?
- 3) The largest number of Catholics, by age, on the Northern Beaches are children aged 10-19. Also, the data reports that a large proportion of Catholic students attend state schools. What may need to be considered in providing avenues for mission for the youth and young people on the Northern Beaches?
- 4) An increasing number of people living in the Northern Beaches experience a number of social difficulties: domestic and family violence, mental health and wellbeing concerns, and difficulties due to the effects of the current housing affordability crisis. What may need to be considered to support and resource the specific social and disadvantaged needs of people living on the Northern Beaches? What areas for outreach may need to be thought through and considered?
- 5) How does the current grouping of Catholic Communities on the Northern Beaches facilitate or limit; mission, ministry, worship, liturgy, and catechesis? What may need to be considered or reviewed to enhance and strengthen Catholic Communities on the Northern Beaches?

Secondary School age students

Inviting secondary school-age students (at schools or in parish Youth groups) to participate by responding to the below-guiding questions.

- Does Christian faith have any relevance for me personally or for the communities of the Northern Beaches? If not, why not?
- What would the Church have to do to have any impact on people living on the Northern Beaches?
- What are the biggest issues facing young people on the Northern Beaches today?
- What do I like most about living on the Northern Beaches? What do I dislike?

Primary School age students

Inviting Year 5 and Year 6 students to participate by responding to the below guiding questions.

- What does the Church mean for me?
- What would help me have a greater sense of belonging to the Church for me?
- What would I change about the Church?
- What could the Church do better on the Northern Beaches?

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
whom should I dread?

When those who do evil draw near, they stumble and fall.

First Reading

Genesis 3:9-15

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden,' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, 'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts.

You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life.

I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.'

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 129

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice!

O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. R.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?

But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you. R.

My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. R.

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. R.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:13 - 5:1

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture - I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God. That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 12:31, 32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 3:20-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus went home, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying: 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So Jesus called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom can not last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he can not stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies: but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

The mother and brothers of Jesus arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
