Commending the behaviour of the watchful servants, Jesus instructed his disciples to be always attentive, “ for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect “
After his resurrection from the dead, they initially understood these words as referring to his imminent return.
For our part they should prompt us to be ever attentive and vigilant— alert to Jesus present to us in the people we meet and in the events of everyday life.

“See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit”

Interested in becoming Catholic?

Are you wondering what life is all about, perhaps asking yourself, "What is my purpose? or Why am I here?"

You are welcome to seek answers with us in our conversation through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) group. RCIA is the formation process by which non-Catholic adults learn about the Catholic faith journey and gradually become full members.

We start our meetings in September 2019 in the Prayer Room of St Kevin's Church, Dee Why.

For more information on the RCIA program, or if you are interested in being a sponsor or helping in some way, please contact Warringah Catholic Church, Tel: 02 9982 6536 Email: office@warringahcatholicparish.org.au

Charitable Works Fund

This weekend we are continuing our Charitable Works Fund Appeal.

Your donations to the Charitable Works Fund are distributed amongst five Catholic services that assist the people of our Diocese. Catholic Care Hospital Chaplaincy is one of these. Donations to CWF Fund of $2 and over are tax-deductible.

Thank you for your kindness, your thoughtfulness and your generosity.

St John The Apostle Piety Shop/ Parish Library. First Holy Communion items. Rosary Beads, medals plus more in stock.

Please browse the Parish Library. There is a large range of donated books available to borrow, Bibles, Prayer Books, Bible Study Books, Saints & RCIA books plus lots more. PLUS Books for children, Bible Story Books & Prayer Books . Open after Sunday morning Masses.

Cleaning of the Church

Please come and answer the call for help by Father Emman to give the Church a more detailed cleaning. The cleaning tasks are, to name a few : taking away all the cob webs that have accumulated around the windows inside and outside the Church. The thorough dusting of the statues and all items on the various pieces of furniture in the church. The choir loft needs attention as well. The foyer at the front entrance also needs some work.

So PLEASE come on Saturday August 17 with your cleaning "tools" like dusting cloths, buckets, brushes.... And let us give Our Lord a clean place of worship!

Contact Monique Davis for more information on 0477 004 312

Thank you.

Thank you from Narraweena St Vincent de Paul

Narraweena SVDP members wish to thank parishioners for the response to their recent Winter Appeal. $ 8,582 was donated and more than 100 bags of clothing was collected. The Winter appeal coincides with our financial year end. For the financial year July 2018 – June 2019 ; $18,155 was distributed in Food Vouchers and Gift Cards for essentials, to assist the most needy in our local community. Please continue to use the poor boxes at the church entrance if you still wish to donate or hand your donation into the parish office. Your generous donations assists us in receiving a steady fusion of funds to help families in need throughout the year. Thank you so much for your generosity. John Colby

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever.
Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

First Reading Wisdom 18:6-9.

A reading from the book of Wisdom.

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in, they would joyfully take courage.
This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you.
The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord:
that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike;
and forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 32:1, 12, 18-20, 22
R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.
They are happy, whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen as his own. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

Second Reading Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-12
A reading from the letter to the Hebrews
Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was for faith that our ancestors were commended.

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 24:42, 44

Alleluia, alleluia!
Be watchful and ready:
You know not when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia

Gospel Luke 12:32-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke Jesus said to his disciples: 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom. 'Sell your possessions and give alms. Get yourselves purses that do not wear out, treasure that will not fail you, in heaven where no thief can reach it and no moth destroy it. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

'See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Peter said, 'Lord, do you mean this parable for us, or for everyone?' The Lord replied, 'What sort of steward, then, is faithful and wise enough for the master to place him over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time? Happy that servant if his master's arrival finds him at this employment. I tell you truly, he will place him over everything he owns. But as for the servant who says to himself, "My master is taking his time coming", and sets about beating the menservants and the maids, and eating and drinking and getting drunk, his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the unfaithful.

'The servant who knows what his master wants, but has not even started to carry out those wishes, will receive very many strokes of the lash. The one who did not know, but deserves to be beaten for what he has done, will receive fewer strokes. When a man has had a great deal given him, a great deal will be demanded of him; when a man has had a great deal given him on trust, even more will be expected of him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon
