Today is called Palm Sunday but in Luke's account of Jesus' procession into Jerusalem there are no palms. Luke mentions only that the people spread their cloaks on the road as Jesus entered Jerusalem. The cloak—the outer garment the people wore— was the most valuable item of clothing they possessed and many people owned only one cloak. They wrapped it around themselves at night as protection from the cold. In placing their cloaks on the ground before Jesus they were offering all they had to the messiah king, entrusting themselves totally to him. To lay down one's cloak before Jesus is a much greater offering than to lay down a palm branch torn off someone else's tree!

On this Palm Sunday we are invited to follow the example of Jesus and empty ourselves, embracing true humility.

We are invited to remove the cloaks of comfort and self-absorption to take on Christ's spirit of humility and selflessness. What is the cloak that I most need to remove to enable the Messiah to enter the Jerusalem of my heart this Easter time.

*" My God, my God,
why have you abandoned me ?"*

Prayer for a New Bishop

Heavenly Father and Eternal Shepherd, you watch over and govern your flock with vigilance and concern.

In your immense love, grant to your Church a pastor who will please you by his holiness and aid us with his unfailing care.

In your time, grant us the joy of welcoming a shepherd formed after your own heart.

May he be an example of virtue to your people and, imbued with the power of the Holy spirit, fill their minds with the truth and beauty of the Gospel.

Grant wisdom, O Lord, to those now discerning your holy will in the selection of our new bishop. We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and through the intercession of our mother, Mary Star of the Sea. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel. Hosanna in the highest.

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 12:8-9, 17-20, 23-24

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' R.

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R.

They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me!
R.

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.'
R.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians
His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Philippians 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel:

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 23: 1-49

Communion Antiphon

Father if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

We begin the "Holy Week" during which we see Jesus reach the climax of his mission, each unfolding event accentuating the deepest meaning of his life, words and teachings. During this week he will speak of our human condition: our life with all its sorrow, pain, work, worry, anguish and anxiety. He invites us to walk with him so that we can imitate his "self-emptying" attitude, emptying ourselves of our own will and our desire to control our own lives and the lives of others.

This is not a call to a life of pain and misery, but to a life of deep freedom, peace and happiness.
