The world in which we live is a mixture of beauty and ugliness. We observe the great goodness of so many people but we also see wars and evil actions. We see the beauty of nature but we also experience cyclones, drought and earthquakes that cause so much destruction and loss of life.

We long for the time when God's reign will be fully established and evil in all its forms eliminated. Until then, we must play our part in creating a more just world. We must not live in idleness but work to promote the well-being of everyone. Faithful endurance is required as Jesus points out in today's Gospel. While we long for the complete triumph of God's kingdom, we also recognise that this kingdom has already broken into our world. God is with us now in the struggles of our lives. Today's responsorial psalm invites us to join with all creation in joyful song at the presence of the Lord among us.

We have a choice, we can see only the evil around us and become discouraged, or we can recognise the good that is present in so many ways and join with all peoples and all of creation in a wondrous song of joy.

"By your perseverance you will secure your lives"

Interested in becoming Catholic?

Are you wondering what life is all about, perhaps asking yourself, "What is my purpose? or Why am I here?" You are welcome to seek answers with us in our conversation through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) group. RCIA is the formation process by which non-Catholic adults learn about the Catholic faith journey and gradually become full members. We start our meetings in the Prayer Room of St Kevin's Church, Dee Why. For more information on the RCIA program, or if you are interested in being a sponsor or helping in some way, please contact Warringah Catholic Church, Tel: 02 9982 6536 Email: office@warringahcatholicparish.org.au

YOU ARE INVITED TO MEET BISHOP ANTHONY RANDAZZO

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

SCALABRINI INTERCULTURAL DAY

What a great day of celebration it was for our Parish of Warringah! It started with a beautiful Mass, celebrated by Bishop Anthony Randazzo as well as by Fr. Reinaldo and Fr. Emman. The music by our various cultural choirs was heavenly! It was moving to hear the prayers of the Faithful recited in the different languages that represent a part of our Community. The afternoon was equally magic as we were entertained by a variety of exciting cultural dances while we enjoyed eating the food prepared by so many generous parishioners. We particularly thank the staff of St John and St Kevin schools for organising the combined choir which delighted us with their songs and music. Well done children and teachers!

A big thank you to the Italian Catholic Federation, Filipino, Indian, Indonesian and Australian Community and to all the parishioners who have made this day such a success.

World Day of the Poor –17 November

This Sunday, Pope Francis calls us to commemorate the third World day of the Poor. This year, the theme is “the hope of the poor shall not perish for ever” (PS 9:19), in which “the Church in Australia is recognising volunteers who work to bring hope to those in need.” (ACBC Media Release Oct 2019)

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First Reading

Malachi 3:19-20

A reading from the prophet Malachi
The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 97:5-9

R. The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp with the sound of music.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord. R.

Let the sea and all within it, thunder; the world, and all its peoples.
Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord. R.

For the Lord comes,
he comes to rule the earth.
He will rule the world with justice and the people with fairness. R

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow.

We gave you a rule when we were with you; not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 21:38

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lift up your heads and see;
your redemption is near at hand.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 21:5-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, 'All these things you are staring at now - the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.' And they put to him this question: 'Master,' they said 'when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?'

'Take care not to be deceived,' he said 'because many will come using my name and saying, "I am he" and, "The time is near at hand." Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not so soon.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name - and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
