There is a good chance that today many parish communities will sing one of the well known versions of Psalm 39, " Here I am Lord" based on the ancient hymn of David.

While we may sing this hymn enthusiastically our reality is that we are usually not here in the present.

Instead we carry burdens from the past and are troubled with anxiety about the future. Often the one place we struggle to be, is in the present moment. This does not mean we should forget the pain from the past or ignore our anxiety about the future, since emotion ( pain, anxiety or other) can only exist in the present.

While what has happened in the past has already happened, our present feelings of guilt, grief, hurt or pain about a past experience, are an opportunity for us today to experience the healing of God in the present. In the same way, anxiety about the future is a present feeling and can be healed by God in the present.

The only moment God has with us now, is the present reality of the circumstances of this day.

*****

Let our prayer from this present reality be simply "Jesus: Here I am"

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

All the earth shall bow down before you, O God, and shall sing to you, shall sing to your name, O Most High!

First Reading

Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I shall be glorified';
I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord, my God was my strength.
And now the Lord has spoken, he who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, to gather Israel to him:
'It is not enough for you to be my servant, to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel; I will make you the light of the nations so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 39:2, 4, 7-10

R. Here I am, Lord;
I come to do your will.

I waited, I waited for the Lord
and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry.
He put a new song into my mouth,
praise of our God. R.

You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear.
You do not ask for holocaust and victim. Instead, here am I. R.

In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will.
My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart. R.

Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.
My lips I have not sealed;

you know it, O Lord. R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
I, Paul, appointed by God to be an apostle, together with brother Sosthenes, send greetings to the church of God in Corinth, to the holy people of Jesus Christ, who are called to take their place among all the saints everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ; for he is their Lord no less than ours. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 1:14, 12

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.
He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 1:29-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Seeing Jesus coming towards him, John said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. This is the one I spoke of when I said: A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me. I did not know him myself, and yet it was to reveal him to Israel that I came baptising with water.' John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him. I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is going to baptise with the Holy Spirit." Yes, I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

You have prepared a table before me, and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.
