In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches Martha to confront and slay her "inner demons". He invites her to let go of her anxiety and, like her sister, listen to him speak. After all, he did not come for a grand meal; he came to be among dear friends, to enjoy their company.

Jesus' loving reprimand can enlighten us when we get out of focus in the pursuit of our daily tasks and duties. We must learn to sit at the feet of the Divine Master and return to this posture when we are in the thick of our mission.

It sounds simple, yet easily ignored. We all need a spiritual compass, otherwise we will keep running around like Martha, doing work for God but neglecting to take time to listen to him. If we can grow familiar with our friends, what is preventing us from getting familiar with the Lord ?

"Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her"

Bible Sunday – 28 July

Each year the Church designates one Sunday as Bible Sunday, which aims to draw our attention to the Bible more intentionally. Next Sunday, 28 July is Bible Sunday and everyone is encouraged to take some time each day to sit and read the Bible, allowing time to grow in relationship with God; through Scripture God speaks to his children. The Diocese of Broken Bay has various Bibles for sale, including Study Bibles and Children's Bibles that are offered at a subsidised cost through the Fr Harry David Estate. PLENARY COUNCIL 2020: National Theme for Discernment #6 – How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Open to conversion, Renewal and Reform? This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a desire to do things differently in response to Christ and the experience of our people, accepting that faithfulness to tradition requires change that is both personal and communal. SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

First Reading

A reading from the Book of Genesis 18:1-10

The Lord appeared to Abraham at the Oak of Mamre, while he was sitting by the entrance of the tent during the hottest part of the day. He looked up, and there he saw three men standing near him. As soon as he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them, and bowed to the ground. "My Lord" he said "I beg you, if I find favour with you, kindly do not pass your servant by. A little water shall be brought; you shall wash your feet and lie down under the tree. Let me fetch a little bread and you shall refresh yourselves before going further. That is why you have come in your servant's direction". They replied "Do as you say" Abraham hastened to the tent to find Sarah "Hurry," he said "knead three bushels of flour and make loaves" Then running to the cattle, Abraham took a fine and tender calf and gave it to the servant, who hurried to prepare it. Then taking cream, milk and the calf he had prepared, he laid all before them, and they ate while he remained standing near them under the tree. "Where is your wife Sarah?" he asked him. "She is in the tent" he replied. Then his guest said, "I shall visit you again next year without fail, and your wife will then have a son"

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 14:2-5

R. The just will live in the presence of the Lord

Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain? He who walks without fault;

he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart; he who does not slander with his tongue R.

He who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur on his neighbour, who holds the godless in disdain, but honours those who fear the Lord R.

He who keeps his pledge come what may; who takes no interest on a loan and accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a man will stand firm for ever R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians 1:24-28

It makes me happy to suffer for you, as I am suffering now, and in my own body to do what I can, to make up all that has still to be undergone by Christ for the sake of his body, the Church. I became the servant of the Church when God made me responsible for delivering God's message to you, the message which was a mystery hidden for generations and centuries and has now been revealed to his Saints. It was God's purpose to reveal it to them and to show all the rich glory of this mystery to pagans. The mystery is Christ among you, your hope of glory: this is the Christ we proclaim, this is the wisdom in which we thoroughly train everyone and instruct everyone, to make them all perfect in Christ.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 10:38-42

Jesus came to a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. She had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the Lord's feet and listened to him speaking. Now Martha who was distracted with all the serving said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister is leaving me to do the serving all by myself? Please tell her to help me" But the Lord answered "Martha, Martha," he said, "you worry and fret about so many things, and yet few are needed, indeed only one. It is Mary who has chosen the better part; it is not to be taken from her"

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon.

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders; he gives food to those who fear him.
