Luke's Gospel narrates a number of episodes that evoke the Eucharist.

The beautiful post-resurrection evening meal at Emmaus is one such episode. Today's Gospel passage is another. Jesus welcomes the people, cures those in need of healing, speaks to them of the Kingdom of God and feeds them abundantly in the lonely place.

Paul's presentation of the institution of the Eucharist is the earliest written account we have. He wrote as a corrective to the selfish behaviour of the Corinthian community at their celebrations. They showed no regard for one another, no replication of Jesus' hospitality, no care for those in need, no focus on the kingdom of God. They were blind to the fact that Jesus shared the bread as a sign of his life given for his sisters and brothers.

Today's solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ challenges us to examine our lives.

Does our participation in the Eucharist bear fruit in our daily life?

"Whoever eats this bread will live for ever"

THANK YOU to everyone who worked with hands and hearts today.

To all those parents, parishioners and students from year 2 to 6 who helped prepare, cook and package 90 meals to lighten the burden, heavy on the shoulders of those in our community who are struggling with a sick child, parent, the elderly or just surviving on their own. Thankyou most sincerely to those generous parishioners who offered donations so that Wynnie and I could shop for all the ingredients we needed. Special thanks to Wynnie and her sister, Jenny.

Children learned how to make chicken schnitzels and peel and prepare vegies. It was great to have them come and help and experience the joy that actively helping those in need brings. We shared a lot of love and laughter today. Toni Byrne

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

First Reading

Genesis 14:18-20

A reading from the book of Genesis

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 109:1-4

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

The Lord's revelation to my Master:

'Sit on my right:

I will put your foes beneath your feet.' R.

The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of all your foes. R.

A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. R.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.

'You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.' R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;

whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.
