As we hear the various accounts of the appearances of the risen Christ to his disciples we notice that often, they did not recognise him. There was something in his physical appearance that was different. But while his appearance may have been different, there is an absolute consistency in his person and teaching. Throughout his earthly ministry Jesus constantly taught about the need for forgiveness. We must forgive those who do wrong not 7 times but 77 times.

We must pray each day, 'forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us'. And here, in this first appearance to the disciples in the upper room, he immediately talks about forgiveness—'for those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven, for those whose sins you retain they are retained'.

In these words lie the biblical basis for the sacrament of Reconciliation or Confession. But they have relevance for all of us as we all have the possibility to forgive others or to hold them unforgiven. And what a terrible thing it would be for ourselves and others if we hold them unforgiven.

Let us always remember that while forgiveness cannot change the past, it can make a future possible. On this Divine Mercy Sunday; as we contemplate the forgiveness of God, let us pray for the graces we need to extend forgiveness and mercy to others.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

This weekend we welcome the King, Bowman & Perrone families. Congratulations.

Prayer for a New Bishop

Heavenly Father and Eternal Shepherd, you watch over and govern your flock with vigilance and concern.

In your immense love, grant to your Church a pastor who will please you by his holiness and aid us with his unfailing care. In your time, grant us the joy of welcoming a shepherd formed after your own heart.

May he be an example of virtue to your people and, imbued with the power of the Holy spirit, fill their minds with the truth and beauty of the Gospel. Grant wisdom, O Lord, to those now discerning your holy will in the selection of our new bishop.

We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and through the intercession of our mother, Mary Star of the Sea. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

First Reading: Acts 5:12-16

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
The faithful all used to meet by common consent in the Portico of Solomon. No one else ever dared to join them, but the people were loud in their praise and the numbers of men and women who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily. So many signs and wonders were worked among the people at the hands of the apostles that the sick were even taken out into the streets and laid on beds and sleeping-mats in the hope that at least the shadow of Peter might fall across some of them as he went past. People even came crowding in from the towns round about Jerusalem, bringing with them their sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were cured.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 117:2-4, 22-27

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.
This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad. R.
O Lord, grant us salvation;
O Lord, grant success. Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes.
We bless you from the house of the Lord; the Lord God is our light. R.

Second Reading : Revelation 1:9-13, 17-19

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse.
My name is John, and through our union in Jesus I am your brother and share your sufferings, your kingdom, and all you endure. I was on the island of Patmos for having preached God's word and witnessed for Jesus; it was the Lord's day and the Spirit possessed me, and I heard a voice behind me, shouting like a trumpet, 'Write down all that you see in a book.' I turned round to see who had spoken to me, and when I turned I saw seven golden lamp-stands and, surrounded by them, a figure like a Son of man, dressed in a long robe tied at the waist with a golden girdle.
When I saw him, I fell in a dead faint at his feet, but he touched me with his right hand and said, 'Do not be afraid; it is I, the First and the Last; I am the Living One. I was dead and now I am to live for ever and ever, and I hold the keys of death and of the underworld. Now write down all that you see of present happenings and things that are still to come.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me;
happy those who have not seen me, but still believe!
Alleluia!

Gospel John 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me so am I sending you.'
After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord,' he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you,' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him: 'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.
