The work of the Apostles as commissioned by Jesus involves two things: to call people to belief and then to nurture this faith. This is expressed in two ways: to be 'fishers of men' and to 'feed the sheep'. In the case of Simon Peter, in the beginning he is told by Jesus, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men' (Lk 5:10). And in today's Gospel, after his threefold confession of love before the risen Jesus, Simon is told, 'Tend my sheep'.

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, commissions Peter to feed Jesus' lambs and to tend Jesus' flock. Peter should never forget that the flock's owner is Jesus and that he is only the caretaker.

As Good Shepherd, Jesus lays down his life for the sheep. The evangelist then indicates that Peter will die in a manner fitting for a shepherd in the service of Jesus.

This mandate of shepherding given to Peter is extended to other shepherds in the community. Jesus' words to Peter—'Feed my lambs'—can be taken as a solemn charge to care for and to rule the community of believers in his name. The apostolic tradition will later pass on this image of the shepherd who is 'feeding the flock' as a metaphor for Christian leadership.

J will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me .

Will you help teach SRE in our state schools?

We have a team of 17 parishioners (and 3 volunteers doing double shifts from the Lakes parish) teaching Scripture to the 600 children in our 4 State primary schools which just covers the 32 current classes, K – 6 . With teachers needing some breaks throughout the year for various reasons we need a few extras helpers to train for this rewarding work.

The next free training course begins on May 14th (9.30 – 12) at Corpus Christi, St Ives Parish Hall 263 Mona Vale Rd St. IVES or it can be done online. Please join us.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40-41

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning,' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 29:2, 4-6, 11-13

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. R.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.

At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. R.

The Lord listened and had pity.

The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. R.

Second Reading : Revelation 5:11-14,

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation - everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 21:1-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus showed himself again to his disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No,' he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord,' Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Jesus said to his disciples: come and eat. And he took bread and gave it to them, alleluia.
