Besides the twelve, Jesus appoints another group of disciples who will later proclaim the Gospel to pagan nations. Before his ascension into Heaven, Jesus prepares these men by engaging them in a practicum or first training exercise. They are to set out on a mission of peace, giving shalom to every household and prepared to receive peace in return. The disciples are full of joy upon their return from their first missionary journey. They have witnessed the defeat of the powers of evil. Jesus spends time listening to their success stories and shares their joy.

It is very tempting to read the commissioning of the seventy two disciples as a page from the past. Their story should remind us how all baptised Christians belong to the long unbroken chain of modern day disciples, called to continue the mission entrusted to us by Jesus Christ.

We are challenged to move out of our comfort zones and realise that all Christians are essentially missionaries.

"The missionary spirit and the Catholic Spirit are one and the same thing" (Pope Pious XII)

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading Isaiah 66:10-14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her,
all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight
her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:
Now towards her I send flowing
peace, like a river,
and like a stream in spate
the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried
and fondled in her lap.
Like a son comforted by his mother
will I comfort you.
And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.
To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 65:1-7, 16, 20

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds!
R.

'Before you all the earth shall bow:
shall sing to you, sing to your name!
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men. R.

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might. R.

Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me. R.

Second Reading Galatians 6:14-18

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians
The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him
to become an altogether new creature.
Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Colossians 3:15, 16

Alleluia, alleluia!
May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message
live within you.
Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
The Lord appointed seventy-two others
and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs,
to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.
Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals.
Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be,
"Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you.

Stay in the same house, taking what food
and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with
that town.'

The seventy-two came back rejoicing.
'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions
and the whole strength of the enemy;
nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you;
rejoice rather that your names are written
in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.
