Can you drink the cup
that I drink or be baptised with the baptism with which I am baptised? (Gospel)

Dear Parishioners and visitors to the Parish,

We might wonder how James and John, as disciples of Jesus, still do not get the message. They want to share in his glory but have not grasped that the way to the resurrection is through suffering and death. We might look at this scenario and ask ourselves about our own expectations of God and how well we embrace the cross, or do we seek a comfortable and blessed life?

Many are preoccupied with wanting a share of the perceived power within the Church, but the labourers who care for the materially and spiritually poor and dispossessed are few. As lay people, our call is primarily to exercise the ministry of prophet, priest and king of the world. How do we serve the world in which we live? Or do we simply aspire to comfort within the Church? Jesus presents us with an inverted power structure: servant leadership. Real authority comes through service – in washing the feet of others.

May God bless you,
Fr Greg Chee, OCD

50th Anniversary Celebrations

We are looking forward to our 50th anniversary celebrations on Sunday the 27th of October.

We have a special 10am mass planned, which will be followed by a morning tea.

We are wanting to share our cultural diversity and invite parishioners to bring along a plate to share that represents their culture.

The school band will be playing after mass and they will be followed by Josephine Edwards playing the piano for us.

You can purchase 50th anniversary T-shirts and coffee mugs - details are in the bulletin below.

We encourage you all to attend the 10am mass that weekend.

Prayer Zone

Please pray for the ill:

GO AND INVITE EVERYONE
to the banquet

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "Invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.

Parish / Community

INVITATION

Bishop Anthony Randazzo invites everyone in our community the opportunity to participate in the Pastoral Discernment North Shore project. The Project aims to understand the unique challenges and opportunities distinct to the North Shore Deanery in order to develop a Pastoral Mission that enables all in the community the opportunity to participate more fully in the Mission of Jesus Christ.

All members of our community are invited to participate in the consultation phase of the project at the service of shaping a pastoral discernment submission for Bishop Anthony's consideration.

Please join Corpus Christi for a parish/community Consultation Forum, an opportunity for us to listen deeply to each other and attend to how the Holy Spirit is moving within us. Our Parish community's listening and dialogue sessions will be held in the hall and church on the following dates and times.

Please contact Jen Perrott if you can help with the tables.

The Word

Sunday 20 October 2024: 29th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Collect

Almighty every-living God,
grant that we may always confirm our will to yours
and serve your majesty in sincerity of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

First Reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah Is 53:10-11

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, and have long life.

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement,
he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life
and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.
His soul's anguish over
he shall see the light and be content.
By his sufferings shall my servant justify many,
taking their faults on himself.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 32:4-5. 18-20. 22. R. v.22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love. to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second Reading

From the letter to the Hebrews Heb 4:14-16

Let us be confident in approaching the throne of grace.

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Son of Man came to serve
and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!

Gospel

From the holy Gospel according to Mark Mk 10:35-45

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.
James and John, the sons of Zebedee approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
