A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat. (Gospel)

Dear Parishioners and visitors to the Parish,

Have you ever been caught in a storm or saturated by rain? Have you ever been engulfed in a morning fog that restricted your visibility? Big wave surfers who attempt to surf monster waves always prepare themselves for the possibility of being held down by these waves in a 'wipe out'. A common feature in today's Gospel reading is water and the weather conditions. We read that Jesus instructs the disciples to cross the lake and then falls asleep to be woken with panic and cries for help. The disciples – understandably – become frightened and frozen in fear by the gales and waves. You would imagine that most people would enter panic mode when such a catastrophe presents itself. However, Jesus encourages an increase in patience and trust in his presence – later rebuking the conditions and creating a peace. This calmness is only realised once listening is undertaken, and trust is practiced. When have you experienced storms that seemed to overwhelm? How do you rediscover calm? Jesus teaches us today that to weather such storms, a deep trust in his presence is vital and life-saving.

May God bless you,
Fr Greg Chee, OCD

Social Justice Corner

Singing Up Country 2024

Frenchs Forest Catholic Parish Social Justice Group has invited our parish to participate in Singing Up Country 2024. The event will be held at the beginning of NAIDOC week and will showcase Aboriginal musicians, their culture, music and community spirit, led by Michael Birk. Michael is a Yaegl man from the Clarence River region in Northern NSW, who resides in Cromer. He is also a musician who established the event as part of the Gai-mariagal Festival, a celebration of the oldest living culture on earth.

Michael says this event is for everyone to enjoy. "I like to use this terminology that's called 'cultural safety,'" he explains. "It's a safe space for people to be whoever they are, wherever they come from."

"They come and they celebrate the talented Aboriginal musicians, but also, we talk about the justice that we seek, the current fight for social change. But everyone is in a safe space to be there and share – as well as enjoy really top-notch music."

Musicians will include: The Stiff Gins, The Recognisers, Green Hand Band, Magpie and Spilt Coffee. A warming soup supper will be provided. Before the music, you are invited to join in a free story-telling and walk in the regenerating bush. The event will bring together many communities and is being organised in collaboration with the Kierans Creek Landcare Group, supported by Mona Vale Music.

Date: Sunday, 7th July 2024
Location: St. Anthony in the Fields Church, 46 Myoora Rd, Terrey Hills
Time: 2.30pm: Free Story Telling and Kierans Creek Regeneration Walk
 3.45pm: Smoking Ceremony

The Word

Sunday 23 June 2024: Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Collect

Grant, O Lord,
that we may always revere and love your holy name,

for you never deprive of your guidance those you set firm on the foundation of your love.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

First Reading

From the book of Job 38:1. 8-11

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer.

He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds, it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 106:23-26. 28-31. R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

1. Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep. (R.)
2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven
and back into the deep; their soul melted away in their distress. (R.)
3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need, and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed. (R.)
4. They rejoiced because of the calm, and he led them to the haven they desired. Let them thank the Lord for his love, the wonders he does for men. (R.)

Second Reading

From the letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 2 Cor
5:14-17

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone,
and now the new one is here.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

Gospel

From the holy Gospel according to Mark Mk 4:35-41
Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
